OPENING PRAYER.

Almighty God, our Bountiful and Loving Heavenly Father, Thou who art infinitely great and whose greatness is only exceeded by

Thine infinite goodness, we bow in humble reverence before Thee on this momentous occasion. We praise thee because Thou hast not remembered us according to our sins nor rewarded us according to our iniquities, but out of the depths of the richness of Thy love Thou hast bestowed upon us blessings and mercy even beyond our ability to comprehend.

Because Thou are the giver of every good and perfect gift thou hast granted us the privileges of our great Order and Thou has caused us greatly to rejoice at the record of its splendid achievements.

We thank Thee that through its ministrations we have been permitted to have part in the relief of so much distress, to help comfort so many that mourn, to give their chance in life to so many of those that are orphaned and to bear up the trembling footsteps of the aged.

Wilt Thou bless this Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. May Thy benign spirit guide in every moment of its deliberation. Give special wisdom to him who presides and the spirit of true brotherhood to every officer and representative whose work and influence shall make the record of these sessions.

Broaden our visions we pray Thee; add new fervor to our zeal in the service of humanity and may our lives continually express the spirit of our common prayer;

"Our Father, who are in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us,
And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil,
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever,
Amen."

The Deputy Grand Master, by order of the Grand Master, then proclaimed the Grand Lodge open for the transaction of business.

The Grand Master ordered the flag to be displayed, whereupon the Grand Warden placed the colors to the right of the Grand Master. Opening ode was sung and all saluted the flag.

GRAND OFFICERS' REPORTS

GRAND MASTER

---

To the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the State of Illinois:

I herewith submit, for your consideration, my official report as Grand Master for the term now drawing to a close.

During a year of continued activity, it has been my daily desire to express, by my official acts, the deep sense of appreciation I experienced and attempted to voice when the great honor of Grand Master was conferred upon me one year ago.

The splendid spirit of co-operation that has existed among the Grand Lodge Officers, and been expressed in a true fraternal fashion by the whole membership of the jurisdiction in an endeavor to promote the welfare of the Order, has ripened into results that give me great pleasure to report.

Recognition for valuable services to the Order, as well as the plain statement of fact, compels me to first bring to your attention the tremendous energy and labor given during the year by Past Grand Master Blood as Grand Instructor, and especially in the attempt to carry out the plan of the Sovereign Grand Lodge with reference to the District Deputy System. Like any new plan, this provision met with the usual prejudice in its application; it still required much educational work that its purposes might be thoroughly understood by all, and demanded a high degree of patience and tact in meeting the many difficulties caused by a system that had become obsolete, and in all these matters Brother Blood labored faithfully and well.

The Order has grown to over 120,000 members in Illinois and the official business connected with this great army of active men has grown to such an extent that the Grand Master is kept busy with office duties and cannot devote the time to traveling over the state to visit Lodges and make addresses as has been done in years gone by. The field work, thus increasing in volume each year, should be referred to the Grand Instructor, who should give all of his time and careful attention to it.

The results of the District Deputy System in the increase of membership, increase in the general efficiency in conferring degrees, and better understanding in Lodges and among Lodges, has been such that I strongly urge its adoption as a permanent part of our organization.

The magnitude of the task in adopting this plan and in perfecting the proper organization in each District has necessarily rendered its administration somewhat imperfect, but in those Districts where the Deputies have been trained to understand their duties in ascertaining facts, settling disputes, and assisting weak or delinquent Lodges, the results have foreshadowed the lasting benefits that may be expected when its application is complete. The full fruits of the plan will appear in greater measure as it is perfected. We are now but laying the foundation for the more effective organization through which we may better serve each other and impress, with greater lasting results than heretofore, the lessons of the Order upon the minds of the candidates who enter our doors.

INCREASED MEMBERSHIP.

The first six months of my term indicates a net gain in membership throughout the year of one thousand per month, which I attribute largely to the improved county organization and the response thereto by the active members of the Order. This growth has been general and must indicate a healthy growing condition of the Order in all parts of the state. It is a source of pride and encouragement to every Odd Fellow in the jurisdiction to know that the Order is steadily increasing in numbers and fraternal power.

The Grand Master realizes that these results have been accomplished almost entirely by a loyal and faithful membership working in a spirit of devotion to our ideals, and he again expresses his debt of gratitude for the splendid spirit of labor and achievement in behalf of our beloved Order.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Submitted herewith are the official communications which have been issued from my office during the year, together with a roster of the officers and committees elected and appointed for the ensuing year:

SALUTATORY.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F. of the State of Illinois. GREETING:

I am unable to express my appreciation of the honor you have conferred upon me in the call to serve you as Grand Master during the ensuing year. I can only make this statement, voicing my sincere gratitude and making my pledge to serve you with all the powers at my command.

With a feeling that I will be unable to equal the splendid services of the able brethren who have preceded me in this office, I therefore do not hesitate to call upon you for constant co-operation in facing and solving the problems of the coming year to the end that our beloved Order may be exalted and continue to be useful in promoting the welfare of our fellow men.

With the closing of the Centennial year, the storm clouds of war have passed away and our brethren who wore the uniform and survived the conflict are now in their homes. The Service Flag may now be furled and the golden stars upon them will be inscribed on the memory of the Fraternity, to be honored and cherished as long as Lodge and Country shall endure.

The period of re-adjustment from the confusion of war is at hand and in that undertaking our great Order must play its full part. Odd Fellowship is essentially American. Its birth, its home, and its growth have been in this land; its spirit and its ideals are American and will continue to be so in the faith that America is the hope of mankind, and leads toward a happier humanity and a brighter future for all.

American Ideals.

Odd Fellowship does not care about the place of a man's birth; it does not ask what kind of Caucasian blood runs through his veins; it is not interested in his ancestry nor in his political or religious views; it only seeks to know what he is now, and insists that he be an American. By being an American, is meant one who believes in the system of representative government, one citizenship, one flag, and one law for all. He who cannot subscribe to that faith must find no refuge in an Odd Fellows Lodge. There is room for but one citizenry in this country, and that is the American citizenry; there is room for but one government here, and that is representative government guaranteed by the constitution; there is room for but one flag in this whole domain, and that is the Stars and Stripes.

Care in the Selection of Candidates.

It therefore becomes important that candidates seeking the benefits of the Order through initiation be examined with great care. The Order cannot perform its full part in these reconstructive days if within its membership are included those who harbor destructive ideas. The interests of the Order are identical with the interests of the nation. The loyalty demonstrated by our membership during the war must not lapse in the succeeding days of peace, for the enemies of representative government in our midst are subtle and dangerous, and as destructive to fraternal institutions as they are to the constitution of the land. If patriotic devotion to country during the coming year may be one of our distinct characteristics, the growth, harmony, and beneficial results will be assured.

The Rebekah Branch.

It will be the policy of the Grand Master to work in harmony with the Rebekah branch of the Order. We recognize the splendid work accomplished by our Sisters, and I wish to aid them in every possible manner.

Each Rebekah Lodge will at once proceed to recommend a Sister to serve as Deputy of her Lodge, and forward such recommendation to the Grand Secretary, John H. Sikes, Springfield.

Remember we stand on the threshold of the second Centennial, with our faces turned toward the future. We are beginning the record of the next hundred years. Much depends upon the lessons we teach, the impressions we make, and the lives we live.

Christmas.

I trust that the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges will each or jointly make an effort to arrange Christmas entertainments for the benefit of the little ones. Let the families of our members come together during the Christmas season, provide a suitable program, and make this a season of festivities, especially memorable in the minds of the children. Our old folks at Mattoon and our orphan children at Lincoln should be remembered in a truly Christmas spirit.

I shall take the privilege of addressing the Lodges from time to time, on the various topics as they came up for consideration. I ask that all official letters received in the Lodges be given careful attention after being read in full to the brethren.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

JOHN W. BIRNEY,
Grand Master.

JNO. H. SIKES,
Grand Secretary.

THE FUEL SITUATION.

Bloomington, Ill., December 9, 1919.

To Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F., of Illinois—Greeting:

We again face a great crisis. The present fuel situation threatens our country with the same suffering and misery that a four years' war inflicted upon millions of people. Even now railway trains are being abandoned with no means left to transport food and other necessities of life. Without fuel, our cities will be darkened, our shops and stores will be vacant, our homes will offer little shelter from the blasts of winter, while disease and starvation will affect our people from sea to sea.

This crisis emphasizes our dependence upon each other for the material things of this life, and the uncertainty of relief calls for the utmost conservation of fuel in both business and home. I am desirous that you cheerfully conform to all orders of the Fuel Commissioners, affecting the use of your Lodge halls until such time as the situation is relieved.

Look After Your Lodge Members.

I advise that, where Lodges are closed indefinitely, the officers of the Lodge meet at some place on your regular meeting night and issue warrants for the relief of your sick brethren, and that your relief committee help those who are in need of fuel or food to the extent that is possible. REMEMBER THE ACT OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN, and take off your coat, if need be, to aid all who are in need of assistance. It is therefore suggested that Lodges adjourn any meetings that may in any way interfere with the rules and regulations of the Fuel Commission, and officers and committees are instructed to follow the same plan for the relief of the sick and distressed which worked so admirably during the trying days of the late war.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

Attest:

THE NEW YEAR.

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., January 5, 1920.

To the Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O. F., of the State of Illinois—Greeting:

We now stand upon the threshold of 1920. We look forward into the new year with confidence, and a resolve to make it the best year that Illinois Odd Fellows have ever experienced.

Owing to the changes in the District boundaries, prompt announcement of Deputy appointments could not be made before this time, but instructions have gone to the Lodges to proceed with installation on their first meeting night, as the Deputies of last year continue to hold office until their successors have been appointed.

This is the "harvest season." There are thousands of strong men of good character in the state who are in need of our association and we are in need of them. Many of them live in your neighborhood and the prevailing prosperity now makes the initiatory fees within the easy reach of all.

May your officers and members be firmly impressed with our duty to the new candidate, for his first impressions will determine his future loyalty to the Order. The presence of a single ritual during the course of the work will check his interest and weaken the bonds that bind him to us. Teach him the work thoroughly before he advances to the succeeding degree, for it is an injustice to him, and a reflection on his Lodge, to take his money and not prepare him in every way to prove his membership in the Order wherever he may be. Better have but one candidate a year and make him proficient, than to receive a dozen and send them out ill prepared. Let him learn the lessons of the Order as he learned his alphabet and then it becomes a part of his every day life, to be taken into his home, his business, and among his fellows where it helps to carry the burdens of life.

As we take these new candidates into our Lodges, let us not forget that they will constitute the Odd Fellowship of tomorrow and will be left to promote its welfare when we have gone beyond.

Much, therefore, depends upon our work this year, for the Odd Fellow of the future is now fashioned by us.

Feel free at all times to call upon the Grand Instructor in all matters pertaining to the Degree work, Schools of Instruction, District meetings, and District organization.

Let us begin this New Year right, that we may end it right—the best we have ever had.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

Attest:

JNO. H. SIKES,
Grand Secretary.

Grand Master

DEPUTIES COMMISSIONED.

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., January, 1920.

To District Deputies, I. O. O. F.:

DEAR BROTHER—It is with pleasure that I forward your commission as one of our District Deputies for the present year.

I have given this important subject careful consideration and trust I have made the very best possible selections, and that my Deputies will recognize the honor conferred and confidence reposed in them.

I am in hearty accord with our District Deputy system and feel sure that if we all work together, as we should, that we will outdo every record heretofore made in Illinois.

I would ask each Deputy to feel free to correspond with the Grand Instructor, H. M. Blood, 224 W. Huron Street, Chicago, in matters of instructions and promotion in your district, assuring you in advance of his hearty co-operation. In matters of law which you are unable to settle by use of the Code, you will refer to the Grand Master.

For further supplies for use in connection with your office, send order to John H. Sikes, Grand Secretary, Springfield, Illinois.

Expenses.

The Grand Lodge appropriation for District Deputies is small, and I will be compelled to limit the amount to reimburse each Deputy to $15.00. This seems small, but in the aggregate it amounts to quite a sum, as we will have over 100 District Deputies. Your compensation will come from the real good you will accomplish in assisting in carrying on the work of Odd Fellowship in Illinois.

Wishing for you, and each lodge in your district, unbounded success during the year, I am,

Fraternally yours,

A GREAT YEAR FOR OUR ORDER.

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., January 25, 1920.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F., of Illinois:

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS—From reports that are coming to the office of the Grand Master, I am pleased to say it is evident to me that the lodges are starting out the new year's work with an interest and zeal that is very encouraging. I have made a special effort to select for my District Deputies Brothers who are well qualified for their work, and men who stand high in their respective communities. Many of them have written me expressing their appreciation of the honor conferred, and promising to give their time and ability in the upbuilding of the Order in their respective fields of labor. Complaints on account of appointments are so few that they are almost negligible.

A Great Year for the Order.

Many Lodges have written me that they will confer degrees on classes of from 20 to 200 in a class, in the near future, and are desirous of a visit from the Grand Master and other Grand Officers.

Increasing the Membership.

It is the desire of the Grand Officers to increase the numerical strength of our Order at least ten per cent this year, that we may enhance its usefulness and power for good. It should be apparent that increase be made from the best men and women in all walks of life. No one should be invited to become a member of this Order except an individual of good character and whose loyalty to America is unquestioned.

"We do not want to have to teach men or women to respect law and order after they have been admitted to membership," but we demand to know where they stand before we vote on their petitions for membership.

Organization.

I am desirous that every district in the state organize its county as requested by the Grand Instructor, H. M. Blood. By so doing you will be the better prepared to carry on the work of helping the weak lodges as well as keeping up the interest in the Order.

The Second Century.

It will not be long until a proclamation will be issued calling upon the lodges to celebrate the one hundred and first anniversary of the Order's existence, and I am desirous that every lodge in the state shall have a part in this notable event. I advise that every county organization arrange to hold a joint celebration either with the Rebekahs or combination of Lodges at the most accessible place in the county for such celebration. I am calling your attention to this event in our Order's history thus early, so that the Lodges may have plenty of time to prepare a good program.

The Grand Master and other Grand Officers will be glad to co-operate with you in securing speakers. I suggest that you write to the Grand Secretary, J. H. Sikes, at Springfield, who will have charge of the Speakers' Bureau. There being so many counties to supply with speakers, it will be a physical impossibility for any Grand Officer to accept all of the calls which will come to him or her, and it is thought best to advise lodges to ask for but one or two speakers, so that we may have enough to supply all the counties.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

SPRINGTIME OF A NEW CENTURY.

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., February 26, 1920.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F., of the State of Illinois:

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS—We are nearing the close of the first century in Odd Fellowship, an Order which was founded on the principle Truth, hence has been lasting. It has increased in usefulness since its incipency, and, being formed on this eternal principle, we need have no fear for its future, providing we adhere to the fundamental laws and teachings laid down by its founders. We should not be satisfied to rest our laurels on the wonderful work which has been accomplished in the passing days of the first century, but should buckle on the armor of renewed zeal in order that this organization shall continue to grow in usefulness as it has in the past one hundred years.

Efficiency.

Speaking broadly of efficiency, it must be understood that the maximum efficiency can be obtained from men only when they take a living personal interest in the work which they are doing. In conferring degree work on a candidate, an efficient degree staff will create a lasting impression. The instructions given the candidate should be given by one who is efficient and earnest. The candidate should be thoroughly drilled and taught the work he has received, before he is allowed to advance in the Order, and, if this policy is practiced, we need have no fear of the member dropping out of the Order for lack of interest. The lack of efficiency in lodge work has been the principal cause for the dropping of so many members from our roster, and I trust, with the dawning of the new century staring us in the face, that the lodges will awaken to the need of doing better work. An example of efficiency is to be found in some of the lodges that have profited by their excellent work.

Springtime of the New Century.

In a few short weeks we will say goodbye to the old century in Odd Fellowship, so fraught with wonderful achievement, and say good morning to the new century. It will be very fitting for us as an Order to begin laying our plans for the springtime in this great Order. Our Order was launched in the springtime, perhaps for the reason that its founders were anxious to have it grow with nature. In this age, the farmer gives great care to the preparation of the soil in the spring for the planting of his crops in order that he may reap an abundant harvest, but in so doing he and his help have had efficient training so as to secure the best possible results. We as an Order should profit from the farmer and from the experiences of successful men in all lines of business.

In conclusion let me say that now, in the springtime of the new century, is your opportunity to awaken to the fact that he who profits most is he who serves best.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

1819—ANNIVERSARY PROCLAMATION—1920.

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., March 16, 1920.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F., of Illinois:

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS—It is my duty to call to your minds the coming anniversary of the birth of Odd Fellowship in America. On April 26, we will reach the first milestone in our second century, and it is highly proper that we celebrate the occasion in our lodges by special meetings and in a spirit of gratitude for the achievements of the Fathers who have bequeathed unto us a fraternal charter, stainless and unimpaired.

It is fitting that we turn back for a day to drink deep from the fountain of the past, and be refreshed and renewed as we pass the landmark of one century to begin the building of the foundation for another.

We hope to emulate and enlarge the accomplishments of the past. We realize, however, that the sturdy industry, integrity, and ideals of the pioneer brethren cannot be easily equaled, much less outdone.

We know how they cleared the forest, subdued the fields, builded the railroads, the cities, the churches and schools; we know how they builded and protected the homes of the people; we know how they preached and practiced love and friendship; we know how they stood for the truth and on the great battlefields of the modern times they made the sacrifices that preserved a flag and a nation that is today the hope and ideal of humanity; we know that, in the stern struggle of the women and men who carried our banner and promoted our principles, there were the unnumbered sorrows and afflictions as well as kindness and benevolence and joy.

And, knowing these things, our sense of gratitude compels us to honor their efforts and crown their anniversary day with the reward that memory reserves to those whose hearts and hands have labored for human brotherhood.

It is therefore ordered that every Odd Fellow Lodge in Illinois make early arrangements to observe the first anniversary of our new century. Let us meet on that occasion with a firm purpose to project the virtues of the Order into the future, in the same spirit with which our forefathers have wrought; let us cultivate the benevolence they practiced, the friendship they engendered, and the love they spread from sea to sea; let us enlarge the fields and mills and the cities they founded, and let us give to the family and flag and nation the same unselfish sacrifice and devotion that was so freely given by them, that human brotherhood may be stronger and all men brought to feel the beneficent care of the Father who provides for us all.

Odd Fellowship will begin the first year in the second century with a mighty impetus behind it which the first century of our Order has given it. May we not only be blessed with the work of the past century, but may we be consecrated and baptized with the spirit of Odd Fellowship, which is a life giving force.

The Grand Sire of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, Henry V. Borst, has issued a proclamation to the Order enjoining upon all Grand and Subordinate Bodies to take proper action for the celebration of the one hundred and first anniversary of the Order on the 26th day of April, 1920, by arranging suitable exercises.

Now, therefore, I, John W. Birney, Grand Master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Illinois, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested, do request and direct that all Subordinate Bodies in this Jurisdiction make plans for and carry out the spirit of the Grand Sire's proclamation with proper exercises on the anniversary of our Order, April 26, or at some other near date which may be more convenient to the membership.

All lodges celebrating the anniversary of the Order, according to this proclamation, are hereby granted dispensation to wear the regalia of the Order upon this occasion.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

MEMORIAL DAY PROCLAMATION.

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., May 21, 1920.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I O. O. F., of Illinois—Greeting:

Another springtime has brought with it the fragrance of the rose and transformed the fields and the forests with its cover of green. We are again in the season that reminds us of immortality and brings to memory the faces and voices of the Brothers and Sisters' who have gone to their home in the far away land.

As one by one they disappeared in the valley of shadows and their spirits, freighted with fraternal affection, were freed from the cage of clay to live forever in that happier realm, nevertheless we miss them as we hold in grateful memory their deeds of kindness in the days gone by.

In commemoration of their lives and endeavors, we should therefore pause from our many labors, confident that—

“There is a calm in friendship's hour,
There is a spell when hearts unite.
There is a magic in that power
That leads to better worlds of light—
That cheers the soul with heavenly ray,
And tells about a peaceful home,
And 'mid the gloom of sorrow's day
Says softly, 'brighter hours will come.'”

Now, therefore, I, John W. Birney, Grand Master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the Jurisdiction of Illinois, and in compliance with the proclamation issued by the Grand Sire of our Order, do hereby earnestly request all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges to hold appropriate memorial services on Tuesday, June 8, 1920, or on some other convenient day approximate thereto, for all deceased members of our Order.

I recommend that the roll of the dead from each Subordinate and Rebekah Lodge be read at your memorial exercises. Among those of our State of more than local prominence who have passed into the Great Beyond during the last year are:

November 4, 1919, Edwin Stapleton Conway, Past Grand Sire; aged 69 years.

April 6, 1919, Nathaniel C. Nason, Past Grand Representative; aged 92 years.

September 14, 1919, Norman Waltrip, Past Grand Representative; aged 52 years.

October 10, 1919, Thomas E. Wood, Past Grand Representative; aged 75 years.

March 3, 1920, George A. Seeley, Past Grand Representative.

A general dispensation is hereby granted to all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges in Illinois to wear the regalia of the Order at said memorial services.

Done in the City of Bloomington, in the State of Illinois, this 21st day of May, A. D. 1920, and of our Order the One Hundred and First Year.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

THE SUMMER MONTHS.

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., June 28, 1920.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F., of Illinois:

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS—The summer months are here and with them comes the disposition to stay away from the lodge meetings. They bring the real test of loyalty to the lodge and challenge our efficiency as a fraternal order. But, like a bank or a railroad, the business of the lodge must be carried on through all seasons and under all conditions. The sick and afflicted cannot lay aside their needs during the hot days of summer and the Odd Fellows' obligations make no allowance for rest.

The Officers.

The primary duty of keeping open the doors of the lodge during the hot weather rests upon the officers. If they desert their posts, then others cannot be expected to remain. An automobile cannot run on three wheels, and a lodge cannot function without its officers in their places. Officers should be impressed with this important duty, for they have been chosen to fill the stations through their fitness, and they should appreciate the honor enough by this preferment to be present at every meeting, and the membership is relying upon them to do so.

Members.

Vacant lodge rooms do not attract new members and without new members lodges cannot grow. Many orders of a similar kind are "wide awake" and are seeking and getting many good men and women to join their ranks. Odd Fellowship should not trail other organizations, but should be "up and doing" when there are so many who are only waiting to be invited to join our Order. This is a day of organizations, money is plentiful, and the harvest is ripe for the gleanings. The present year promises to exceed all others in membership gains if we can keep up the growth through the coming three months. If each lodge in Illinois will get but one new member each month for the next three months, we will finish the year with a wonderful record.

The good of the Order requires that we stay on the job, and, as Odd Fellows, I appeal to you to keep your lodges going that we may go into the coming fall season under full speed.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

FOREIGN LANGUAGE LODGES.

Pursuant to action of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in St. Louis in 1918, and again in Baltimore in 1919, all lodges working in foreign languages were required to surrender their rituals and thus prepare the way to working in the language of the country in all lodges, January 1, 1921. The Grand Master is charged and obligates himself to enforce the laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, as well as the laws of this Grand Lodge, and, to the extent of my ability, I have endeavored to discharge my obligations without prejudice and uniformly throughout the Jurisdiction.

I found that some of the former foreign language lodges were largely opposed to the change ordered by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, but I have endeavored to point out to such lodges the absolute necessity of complying with the laws of the Order if they would continue to be regarded as Odd Fellows, and I am glad to say that as time has passed, and particularly because of the action of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in 1920, wherein it was demonstrated that the entire subject is disposed of, there has been a tendency to accept the conditions and loyally comply with the laws of the Order. Several lodges formerly working in a foreign language have already advanced so far in the change to the English language that I am informed that they can do the work of a Subordinate Lodge in a most creditable manner, and, to these lodges and the brethren who are making a loyal and heroic effort to comply with the laws, I tender my congratulations and trust that, though the change may inconvenience them and possibly they may regard the change as arbitrary or unnecessary, nevertheless, we are all subject to and must abide by the laws of our Order as enacted and promulgated by the supreme law making body.

In the course of my effort to attempt to smooth the way and to encourage the brethren who were making an effort to comply with the law, I have written numerous letters and held many conferences on the subject. In one letter which I sent out to the foreign language lodges, I asked that the brethren as individuals communicate with me. I had a real object in this letter not possibly apparent to the readers; it was that I might get into personal touch with the rank and file of the lodge and thereby be able to explain to them that the Grand Master was not responsible for the law, but was responsible, under his obligations, for the enforcement of it, and that they as good Odd Fellows should join hands with the Grand Master, he under his obligations and they under their obligations solemnly taken when they joined the Order, and work together for the common weal. Only one lodge seemed to take offense at this letter and decided to reprimand the Grand Master for his presumption. I attach herewith the correspondence with Douglas Lodge No. 432, Chicago. The first letter received by me from this lodge is as follows:

Douglas Lodge No. 432.

CHICAGO, ILL., July 21, 1920.

The Honorable John W. Birney,
 Grand Master, I. O. O. F., Illinois,
 Bloomington, Illinois.

DEAR SIR AND WORTHY GRAND MASTER:—Thanking you for your open and frank communication of May 25, 1920, which was read in open lodge, we gladly avail ourselves of the opportunity given us to express our views with regard to your method of changing the Fourth district.

You will pardon us when we say that we are surprised, if not shocked, at the malice or ignorance, or both, displayed in the following quotation taken from your letter: "the welfare of the Order throughout the state 'seemed' to require that lodges be placed in districts according to their location." Do you or would you still venture to make the same assertion when you are informed that, e. g., the "Lily of the West" Lodge was separated by you from the Fourth district and replaced by Templar Lodge No. 440—both lodges meeting at one and the same place? Why this substitution? Why this camouflage?

Why do you not live up to the principles of Odd Fellowship, which demands of its members absolute truthfulness, and be honest about your motives in dividing the 4th district by separating from it a German speaking lodge and replacing it by an English speaking lodge? Why this playing hide and seek on your part, when your motives are very plain to us and cannot be obscured by your hiding behind what "seemed" to you to be required for the welfare of the Order. If actions like those quoted "seem" to you to be demanded by the welfare of the Order, then the good Lord may be gracious unto us and deliver us! We say this in all sincerity and solemnity and by doing so we are desirous to see to it that the grand, noble building, erected by our forefathers, be not destroyed by the ill-advised actions of a mis-informed Grand Master—by a Grand Master who apparently displays so little tact, diplomacy, charity and brotherly love that he should use words as those found in your letter, page 2: "If I could not feel that way about them, I would sever my relations with the Order and associate myself with some other society in whose representatives I could put my trust and whose enactments I could respect and cheerfully obey." Dear sir, believe us, our dissatisfaction and grievance is not directed against the Society and Order to which you and we have the honor to belong, but solely and only against the ill-advised actions of a misinformed Brother who happens to be the Grand Master. However, thank heavens, Grand Masters come and go, but our Order, let us hope, will remain!

In conclusion we may add one remark about the "issue" you refer to in your letter, viz.: "whether as Grand Master you may have our loyal support and active assistance in enforcing the laws of Odd Fellowship in Illinois". May we ask you whether you consider a Subordinate Lodge a police officer attached to the office of a Grand Master, that you should request us to vote upon the question whether we as a lodge should do police officer's duties in supporting and actively assisting you in enforcing the laws of our Order, or that you should want to determine this question by taking refuge to a proceeding unknown to and forbidden by our Order—the referendum? Our duty and the duty of this lodge is to obey the laws of our Order and this the lodge has always done and always will do; but it certainly will and shall refuse to put an illegal issue or question before the lodge demanding a vote of us whether we as a lodge wish to act as police officers attached to the private office of a Grand Master.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

LEO G. BINDER, Secy.

RICHARD ROEDER, N. G.

Upon receipt of this letter, I appointed as my Special Deputy Brother H. M. Blood, P.G.M., to accompany the Grand Secretary, Brother J. H. Sikes, to Douglas Lodge and explain to them that this subject was not a personal matter between John W. Birney, an Odd Fellow, and themselves, but between the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge and themselves, and to further explain that, if it was a personal matter, I would disregard it altogether, but as an official I assumed that they had intended to show disrespect to the office as well as to the man, and directed my Special Deputy to ascertain, first, if this letter was authorized by the lodge. It was found that this letter was authorized by Douglas Lodge, whereupon, I directed that they notify their membership to assemble at the next meeting night, have the letter read to the membership and that the Noble Grand explain that an immediate apology was demanded, otherwise, the Grand Master would be compelled to take drastic measures to maintain the dignity of the Grand Lodge.

I am gratified to report that Douglas Lodge complied with the direction of the Special Deputy. They called a meeting as requested and directed an apology for their previous action to be sent the Grand Master. The letter received by me follows:

APOLOGY BY DOUGLAS LODGE NO. 432.

CHICAGO, August 25, 1920.

The Honorable John W. Birney, Grand Master I. O. O. F., Illinois, Bloomington, Illinois:

DEAR SIR AND WORTHY GRAND MASTER:—It is with a great deal of regret that Douglas Lodge No. 432, I. O. O. F., has learned in open lodge that you feel insulted by the letter which said lodge has directed to you under date of July 21st, 1920, and in which it complained about the redistricting of the Fourth District.

Believe us, Dear Sir and Brother, that nothing was farther to this lodge as to even think, much less to venture to insult our Grand Master. This lodge, therefore, regrets very much that its Grand Master should feel or have felt insulted by the said letter, and begs to assure you that such intention was absolutely absent when the letter in question was sent to you. It, therefore, begs your pardon, if in any way it should have seemingly insulted you or offered to you any affront unintentionally.

Believe us to be,

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

RICHARD ROEDER, N. G.

LEO G. BINDER, Secy.

To the foregoing letter I made the following reply:

August 28, 1920.

Leo G. Binder, Secretary.

Douglas Lodge No. 432.

Chicago, Ill.

DEAR BROTHER BINDER:—I am in receipt of your letter of August 26, signed by Brother Richard Roeder, N. G., and yourself as Secretary of Douglas Lodge No. 432, offering an apology for a letter written to the Grand Master on July 24, 1920.

I, as Grand Master, accept your apology with the injunction to the lodge to GO AND SIN NO MORE.

The letter was an insult to the Grand Lodge, and the Grand Master, being the Grand Lodge in the interim between sessions, could not allow the Grand Lodge to be humiliated by one of its Subordinates, hence the request for an apology.

Personally, I felt that you acted hastily in an unguarded moment when the letter was framed, and, if due consideration had been given the subject matter under which the letter was written, you would not have written such a letter to the Grand Master. I assure you I will not hold enmity towards your lodge; but will be only too glad to render you any service that the Grand Master can give.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

JOHN W. BIRNEY,

Grand Master.

MISSING RITUALS.

Shortly after my assuming the office of Grand Master, the Grand Secretary advised me that his records showed there were still three rituals that had not been exchanged for English rituals, in the possession of New Chicago Lodge No. 506. I took up this matter with New Chicago Lodge and they claimed that two of the rituals had been destroyed or lost, and it was impossible for them to produce them, and they appointed a committee to investigate the matter and made such report that I appointed Brother C. B. Hughes of Remembrance Lodge No. 77 as Special Deputy to visit New Chicago Lodge and take up the subject with them and to recover the one ritual that was acknowledged to be in their possession. I am glad to report that Brother Hughes did recover this ritual and that an English language ritual was exchanged therefor, and this matter is closed to the satisfaction of the Grand Master.

This subject of foreign language lodges has dragged along since the session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in 1918, the purpose of extending the time being that these lodges might prepare themselves for the change, but it is doubtful if it has worked out the way the Sovereign Grand Lodge intended, still I am glad to say that it is my opinion that on January 1, 1921, all of the lodges will be working in no other language than the language of our country, loyally and faithfully, and in a short time the whole subject will be forgotten and the lodges will in reality be benefited by reason of the change.

EX-SERVICE MEN.

The Grand Lodge of Illinois has reason to be proud of its record not only during the war, but in its service to our soldier members since the armistice was signed. At the beginning of my term, I visited the hospital at Ft. Sheridan in company with a committee I appointed in connection with the hospital, Brothers Ransome Walker of Woodlawn Park Lodge No. 825; H. M. Blood, P. G. M., of No. 645, and A. B. Christiansen of No. 645. We found this great military hospital crowded with thousands of soldiers who had been returned from France, sick and maimed, some without arms, some without limbs, some on crutches, some in wheel chairs; many of them in bed; and among these thousands were several hundred members of our Order. It was a physical impossibility for Sheridan Lodge, located about two miles from the hospital, to visit these sick and wounded Odd Fellows and minister to them as was becoming the principles of this Order. I re-appointed Brother Rev. H. D. Dick as a Special Representative of the Grand Lodge to visit these soldier members of our Order in the hospital, daily minister to their wants, whatever they might be, and to keep constantly in touch with them night and day. Brother Dick is peculiarly fitted for just such service and has performed his mission nobly and well. It was a strenuous job in the beginning but, as time went on, there were recoveries, there were removals, and there were deaths, and the number of patients in the hospital grew less and less until at this time I am glad to report there are no longer any calls for the ministration of our Order in this hospital, only three members of our order being there, and Brother Dick has volunteered to stick with them until they leave the institution. In this connection I must commend the splendid service that Sheridan Lodge No. 662 rendered to the Order, and particularly to these unfortunate Brothers. This lodge has had a wonderful experience; an experience that could not come to any other lodge, because of their proximity to the hospital. They have given entertainments, provided conveyances for those unable to reach the lodge room; they have had these soldier members in uniform in entertainments and regular lodge meetings as well, by the scores and by the hundreds. To the officers of Sheridan Lodge, I wish to take this opportunity of offering the thanks of the Order, not only the thanks of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, because these members came from all the Jurisdiction, but I wish to thank them for the service they have rendered the Odd Fellows in the biggest and broadest way.

To the Rebekah branch of the Order, who have so splendidly co-operated with the Subordinate branch in this great work of friendship and love, I wish to extend the thanks of the Order and to commend the work of these magnificent women whose hearts so well understood and whose hands were so well trained in the encouragement and assistance to recovery that has been manifested in this hospital. And to Captain Sheel, that splendid U. S. officer and an Odd Fellow, who had charge of the rehabilitation of these men; the responsibility of changing their vocations; preparing them that they might become self-sustaining and independent as American citizens; making over carpenters into bookkeepers; changing a man's vocation from that of physical to mental because of his injuries; to him I wish to say that this Order also expresses its gratitude and appreciation, and commends him for his humanity and his interest in the welfare of our brethren who came into his care.

RESIGNATIONS AND APPEALS.

Brother L. M. Kagy, P. G. M., was compelled, on account of illness, to resign his office as Grand Representative. Brother Kagy was for several weeks confined to a hospital in St. Louis following a severe operation and was in no physical condition to stand the strain of travel to Boston and the activities incident to a session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. Brother Kagy wrote me on August 25, tendering his resignation as Grand Representative. I am glad to report, however, that he is slowly but surely recovering and that we hope to have many years association with this splendid Odd Fellow and useful citizen. Upon receipt of Brother Kagy's resignation, I appointed Brother Chas. S. Harris, P. G. M., as Representative in Brother Kagy's place. Brother Harris attended the Sovereign Grand Lodge and his report will be found in the report of the Grand Representatives.

THE PRESS.

My impulse would be to use a great deal of space in a discussion of the benefits to be derived from a sane reading of the fraternal journals. I am sorry that the "Chicago Odd Fellow" found it financially necessary to suspend its publication. This publication was purchased by the Odd Fellows Herald of Springfield. I recommended to the officers of the Subordinate Lodges and those who take an active interest in the welfare of the Order, that they call the attention of the members to the advantages of being a subscriber to some fraternal publication. It is well known that the percentage of readers of fraternal papers dropped for non-payment of dues is exceedingly small. The members who cannot for one reason or another be in attendance constantly at their lodge meetings drift away from the Order and become detached from its activities, but, if there is a good fraternal paper coming to the home, they at least have an opportunity to keep informed as to what is going on and the work accomplished by the Order. If the lodge officials would so understand this and would take it upon themselves to induce, as far as possible, the members to become subscribers, they would confer a distinct benefit upon their own lodges and reduce to a minimum this yearly waste by way of non-payment of dues route. I recommend especially to the Noble Grands and Secretaries of the lodges that they give this subject serious consideration.

J. D. Phillips

VISITATIONS.

I have received several invitations from sister Jurisdictions to attend sessions of their Grand Lodges. Owing to the stress of duties demanding my attention in this state at the time these Grand Lodges were in session, I was unable to attend any. I feel that it was a great loss because it is of as much benefit to Grand Jurisdictions that there be frequent and brotherly visitations, as it is beneficial to Subordinate Lodges. I hope that in the future our Grand Lodges may have many visitations from Grand Masters of other Jurisdictions.

I did not get to make as many official visits as I would like to have made, but wherever I had the opportunity of going I was accorded the greatest of welcome. On January 1, in company with Mrs. Birney, I attended the annual New Year's celebration of John Ericsson Lodge, where we were highly entertained in the afternoon with a splendid program. Brother James Ewing Davis, P. G. M., presented each of the returned soldier members of this lodge with a beautiful tablet. His eulogy to the boys who were in the service of our country was very beautiful and touching. Past Grand Master H. M. Blood made a wonderful patriotic address which ended with the furling of the Service Flag. I addressed the Lodge on this occasion and Mrs. Birney sang some character songs. At six p. m. a bountiful banquet was served to the members and their families and the splendid day closed with a ball in the evening.

February 22 I visited Rock Island, where the third degree was conferred in a theater on a very large class of candidates. The auditorium proved too small to hold all the Odd Fellows who wished admittance and the class was divided. After the first class of candidates had received the degree, a number of members retired so that room could be had for the Odd Fellows who could not gain admittance before. The combined staffs of Moline and East Moline Lodges conferred the degree in a very creditable manner. In company with H. M. Blood, Grand Instructor, I attended a meeting of Western Star Lodge at Alton on March 17, which proved to be one of the best attended meetings of the year. Members came in large numbers from many neighboring lodges and we were gratified to know that Past Grand Master Kagy had aroused this splendid old lodge and had gotten them to functioning again. I was highly honored to be invited to deliver an address at a Memorial held at Edwin S. Conway Lodge on March 22 for our Beloved Past Grand Sire E. S. Conway, deceased.

I spoke to a large and appreciative audience in Freeport on April 26, at their Anniversary celebration and at Woodstock on the 27th, where I met with a hearty reception.

On Sunday, June 6, I delivered a Memorial address to an audience of some three thousand at the beautiful park in Moline. A more attentive audience I have never had the pleasure of addressing. I also attended interesting meetings at Lexington, Centralia, Urbana, Gibson City, Tonica, East St. Louis, and Chicago. I was present at a picnic and District meeting at Pekin on October 6, which proved to be a great success and made so largely through the efforts of Brother J. D. Phillips, Grand Conductor, and D. D. G. M. of his District.

ODD FELLOWS' LEAGUE AND RELIEF BOARD.

This organization has functioned in the City of Chicago for many years and I take great pleasure in attaching herewith the official report of this League. Their work and their field of activities is so well known to this Order that it needs no commendation from the Grand Master at this time further than to say I have acquainted myself with their work the past year and I am gratified with all the work of this organization and recognize its service to the Order.

OUR HOMES.

Another illustration of the performance of duty by Odd Fellowship in Illinois is found in our homes. I know much has been read and much has been said about the home. I know, since the days of the Shepherd Kings, poets have never ceased to write; speakers have never ceased to speak, and singers have never ceased to sing the songs of home. But with all the beautiful poems that have been written to paint the poet's dream of home; with all the impassioned eloquence that has been aroused in defense of the home, and with all the subtle charms of music that have touched and tuned the human heart with melodies of home, still there is with us the overwhelming importance of the home.

ORPHANS' HOME.

It has been my privilege as well as a very great pleasure to have had the opportunity of making a number of visits to our Orphans' Home, where I was privileged for so many years to visit monthly.

Nature intended the tender years of every little child to be shielded by the refining influence of the best possible home, and every child born into this world is entitled, as a matter of right, to this one refuge. Unfortunately there are many children whose mothers' faces are but a memory and who never heard a father's voice. These are the innocent orphans who challenge the mercy of the community into which they come and must depend upon others for shelter and home. No one can realize what childhood must be without a home, for memory of father and mother, brother and sister, in the old home, is the sweetest experience that we carry through the years, and the absence of these tenderest of all human ties is hard indeed to understand.

No Odd Fellow or Rebekah who has visited this Home will go away without the knowledge that the children there are cared for by a loving father and mother in Dr. and Mrs. Lucas.

GRADUATION EXERCISES.

I was detained at home on important business on graduation day, until late, and the exercises were about over when I arrived, but I had arranged with Brother H. M. Blood, P. G. M., to make the address to the class and present each of them with $10.00 in gold.

HOME MANAGEMENT.

I wish to praise the Superintendent and Matron for their continued care and wise counsel in the guidance of the children whom we all love so dearly.

The Board of Directors have had their worries in trying to keep within their appropriation and I wish to commend them for their business sagacity and care in handling the affairs of the Home. The high cost of supplies and uncertainty of the markets has been felt in our Homes the same as in our individual homes. I hope that more of our membership will avail themselves of the opportunity of visiting our Homes.

OLD FOLKS' HOME.

It has been my pleasure to visit this Home on four occasions during my administration, three times when the Board was in session. I found the Home in splendid condition and wish to commend the trustees for the great interest they manifest in this Home in a business and fraternal manner. I was pleased to sign the warrants for the purchase of additional land that they had contracted for last year, the purchase of which was approved by the Grand Lodge at the last session. This land was needed to furnish more pasturage for their splendid herd of cattle. The farm presents the best appearance of any farm I know of and is in a high state of cultivation, and the yard and ground shows artistic care. I was very pleased to look upon one of the finest flocks of chickens that I have seen anywhere, cared for by two of the old Brothers in such a way as to get the best results in the production of eggs.

BROTHER SAYLER.

There is no doubt that the success of the Home is brought about largely through the loving guidance of the Superintendent and his good wife. They are administering from day to day to those whose hair is silvered by the cares of many seasons and whose declining days were not favored with a proper sheltering roof. One of the saddest sights in this life is the spectacle of an aged man or woman bent and stooped by the burden of years, crowded by their infirmities to one side of the busy highway of life, to stand there lonely and alone while the current of humanity goes whirling by, without a child or even a grandchild to take them by the hand and walk with them the little distance to the end. It is to these, who are children at each end of life, helpless and homeless, that Brother Sayler is acting as a strong supporting son and Sister Saylor is administering a mother's care. I heartily commend their work at the Home.

REBEKAH BRANCH.

At the beginning of my term of office, I conferred with Sister Ida E. G. Sherman, President of the Rebekah Assembly, and at my suggestion it was mutually agreed that all matters pertaining to the Rebekah Branch of the Order be referred to her, except such as required my official decision, and I am of the opinion that Sister Sherman has, by her good judgment, answered many letters that came to me from many lodges, in a satisfactory manner, as I have not received any complaints from her decisions. I desire to express my appreciation for the splendid administration of Sister Sherman. I also owe a debt of gratitude to Sister Mae E. Crowell, Secretary, for assistance during the year. I regret very much that my time was so occupied that I was deprived of the pleasure of attending more Rebekah meetings. Rebekah Odd Fellowship has a wonderful mission to perform, and I am convinced that this branch of the Order is functioning better in this state than ever before. Their interest in our Homes is manifest. The money spent in furnishing and in permanent improvements is appreciated by the officers of the Homes as well as by the grateful membership of all branches of our Order. The membership has almost kept pace with the Subordinate Lodge in growth, having increased in number approximately 6,000 during the first half of the present year.

NECROLOGY.

Each year claims its toll, and we are compelled to report the departure from this life of some former Grand Officers. Sometimes it is one and sometimes several, but this year up to the date of this letter only one former Grand Master has passed out of this life and gone to that great Grand Lodge to which we shall all sooner or later demand admittance. It so happened that on Sunday, May 30, I was in the city of Chicago and was called at my hotel and informed that Brother Fred B. Merrills, P.G.M., and chairman of the Committee on Legislation, had suddenly died in a hotel in that city, and his body was in charge of a local undertaker. I immediately got into communication with Past Grand Masters Blood and Davis of Chicago, and together we did those things which could be done under the circumstances, in looking after the body, attending the inquest, advising with the family at Belleville, etc., and, as soon as the authorities were ready to release the body, I directed Brother Blood to accompany the body to Belleville, the home of P.G.M. Merrills, as an escort, which he did and delivered the body to the family. Owing to press of business that I could not avoid, it was impossible for me personally to go with the body to Belleville or to attend the funeral, which I exceedingly regretted. The Grand Lodg has lost, in the death of Brother Merrills, one of its strongest characters, a leading light and a good Odd Fellow. The activities of Brother Merrills during his long years of membership in the Order will live on and on. Brother Merrills' activities during his many years of membership have left their impressions on this Order in the laws and regulations under which the Order exists. His masterly legal mind was always at the service of the Order, and "Merrills' Code" is regarded as an evidence of his daily effort and high qualities along this particular line. Brother Merrills' was an outstanding character. He was "judicial" in his arguments and decisions and rendered splendid service to the Order.

"Death separates, but it also unites;
It reunites whom it separates."

SPECIAL RELIEF.

Under this heading I have been called upon in several cases to grant special relief, in not any very large amount, however. That there are a number who perhaps should have or will soon need special relief, is the opinion of the Grand Master. Such cases as I have had in my care are reported and the amounts given in the financial section of this report.

WAR RELIEF CLAIMS.

The Grand Sire, by proclamation issued on the 27th day of October, 1919, determined that the emergency for such legislation was at an end and the provisions, or requirements, contained in said legislation shall cease to exist from and after the 31st day of December, 1919.

This legislation provided that no member of the Order while there-after serving in the military or naval forces should be suspended for non-payment of dues or lose any rights or privileges which he had attained; also, further provision as to honors as past officers and being excused for failure to attend any meeting when such failure was due to service in the military or naval service. Under the existing conditions I deemed it best that no change be made in this provision during the present year, but in view of the fact that the Grand Sire has issued this proclamation I am of the opinion that the provisions, or requirements, contained in this legislation as regards suspension for non-payment of dues and as to the provision as to honors conferred upon officers should be discontinued at the end of the present term, and I therefore recommend that this provision be abrogated on the 31st day of December, 1920.

The calls for reimbursing Subordinate Lodges on account of sickness or injury due to the great war are very naturally diminishing, but have not entirely ceased. We have a number of Brothers who contracted incurable diseases or were maimed and will naturally and properly call upon the Order for relief for some time to come. With our large membership, I do not believe this will be any special burden for the Order, and I am grateful that we have escaped so easily. All claims for sick benefits by way of reimbursing have been paid and are shown in our Financial Report.

I would recommend that this Grand Lodge continue to reimburse our Subordinate Lodges out of the Illinois Odd Fellows' Soldiers' and Sailors' War Relief Fund for sick benefits at the rate of $3.00 per week, and a funeral benefit of $50.00 per member up to the time of the Grand Lodge in 1920.

QUESTIONS BY THE DEPUTY GRAND MASTER.

Upon the request of Deputy Grand Master Brother C. A. Robbins, all Lodges will receive herewith his question blank concerning the condition of the Order throughout the state.

As some of the questions suggest information and sentiment on the District Deputy System, the Grand Master is taking the liberty of directing your attention to the history of the Deputy System in Illinois, with some observations upon its purposes and its results. This is done with a view of stimulating a careful and serious consideration of the whole matter in determining whether the membership favors the principle of the Deputy System.

Personally I believe in the District Deputy System and am satisfied that the wonderful progress made by Odd Fellowship in Illinois during the last two years has been largely due to the legislation adopted.

Fraternally yours,

JOHN W. BIRNEY,

HISTORY OF THE DEPUTY SYSTEM IN ILLINOIS.

When Illinois was first granted a charter, the state was divided into districts, as all other Grand Jurisdictions have, since and before, been organized. That was at a time when we had no railroads, no roads, and no means of transportation except to ride horseback or travel on foot. Under these conditions it was deemed better to place a deputy in each lodge for the purpose of installing officers.

Though the handicaps of travel had changed for the better our Order did not change the system to be in harmony with all other Jurisdictions until the fall of 1918.

The Situation at the Close of the War.

While every Grand Master, at the close of his term, was aware of the weakness of the old system, and felt that something should be done to correct the same, no one seemed to desire to undertake the work necessary to lay the foundation for something better, especially as it could not be done so as to affect the situation during a current administration.

The war drafts had had a very depressing influence on the lodges. Added to this, many of the lodges had closed altogether on account of the influenza. It was necessary to adopt heroic measures if the Order was to be set on its feet quickly. There is no question but the better organization enabled the lodges of the state to accomplish what would have otherwise taken many years, a net gain of nearly nine thousand the first year, the largest gain in our history.

Only State With Lodge Deputies.

Illinois was the only state, with perhaps one exception, not organized according to the plan of the S. G. L. The ritual contemplates "District" and not "Lodge" deputies.

The Rebekah branch of our Order has a form of district organization, though, of course, the President has no deputies.

The Encampment branch has a district organization modeled on the regulation plan.

This is perfectly natural, for our whole Order, in its organization, is patterned after our civil government, and the county organization, as a unit, works out very much the same as it does in the civil organization.

System Misunderstood.

It is to be expected that any change or the enactment of a new law will be misunderstood by many and opposed, at least by some. This is true in everything with which man has to do. No congress or legislature ever passed a law, or amended an old one, but some were opposed to the action regardless of its general benefits. A prominent member of our Order was not in favor of the action of the Grand Lodge in recommending surety bonds for lodge officers for the reason his lodge got their bonds without cost from the bank wherein their funds were deposited, notwithstanding this was the only lodge so favorably situated, and he would disregard the vital interests of all the other lodges so long as his own lodge was secure.

General Welfare.

It is the general welfare, or the greatest good to the greatest number, that should receive our consideration when passing upon questions affecting all the people, or, in this case, the whole Order. That the present system of district organization has worked out for the general good of the Order, even in its admitted imperfect application, there is no question in the minds of those who have taken the trouble to really investigate and compare with the obsolete method which was discarded two years ago.

Not Yet Perfect.

Due to a lack of general knowledge as to the change, and the fact that not only the lodges had to be made acquainted with the change, but the deputies had to be trained, in many cases, as to what was expected of them, the smoothness with which the change was made, and the results immediately attained, were, indeed, most gratifying.

Harmony.

One important result noticeable as soon as the present system was installed was settling of lodge disputes without reference to the Grand Master. Grand Master Kagy reported that he was not called upon to make a single decision during his term, and the present Grand Master can say as much. Even appeals from ordinary lodge trials to the J. & A. committee seem to have disappeared. This desirable situation is brought about through the counsel and advice given lodges and members by the District Deputies.

Installation of Officers.

The Grand Master has heard some complaint in a few cases that the deputy did not install the officers when asked to do so, but upon investigation he found that the deputy had delayed the installation because the officers-elect were not qualified as required by the laws of the order. As soon as the officers-elect had become able to open and close their lodges without the use of rituals, and had committed the unwritten work of the Order, the Deputy was only too willing to install them.

Visitation by Deputies.

Some complaint has come to the attention of the Grand Master that the District Deputy either did not visit frequently, or had, in some few cases, failed altogether to get to their lodges. Upon investigation the Grand Master found that the deputy complained of had devoted much time, and spent considerable money out of his pocket, in the interests of lodges in his district which really needed his presence, and he had let the lodge which was doing well, with no trouble of any kind, "go along" while he assisted weaker ones. There has been so much practical work to be done in this state that the Grand Master has encouraged the deputies to devote their attention especially where such service was most needed. Many of the Deputies have spent sums out of their private means running into larger amounts than they are willing to admit, even to themselves.

Dormant Lodges.

The Grand Master has received reports of numerous lodges, lodges that had not held regular meetings in several years, which were revived through the personal efforts of the District Deputies. This is the sort of work which is really worth while, and is much more important than ornamental visits where there is no special need of the presence of a Deputy.

The Right Man for Deputy.

The Grand Master, at the beginning of the present term, used what seemed at the time to offer the best method in making the appointment of Deputies. It is quite likely some better method will be found as time goes on. I am glad to say, however, that, in the selection of 112 Deputies, the percentage of those who were not fairly well qualified was very small. In some cases Brothers were urged by lodges to accept appointment who were, by reason of occupation, unable to fill such a position, and later resigned. In such cases changes have been made as occasion required. In one case complaint was filed against a Deputy by his own lodge, after having recommended him, and the Deputy tendered his resignation to the Grand Master, which was promptly accepted. It is really remarkable that so large a percentage of the Deputies should have really "made good," a larger percentage than could be reasonably expected had a similar number been employed in any business enterprise. I take it that any Grand Master would prefer to have, as his Deputy, the Brother most acceptable to the lodges of his district, and this can be easily accomplished if the lodges will give the Grand Master the benefit of their judgment in time to be available.

District Organization.

Along with the District Deputy system goes the District Organization. I have urged the lodges everywhere to get together and perfect a good district organization, elect competent officers and put into practical operation the principle of co-operation. Wherever this has been done, and the lodges have entered into this work with even limited enthusiasm, the result has been exceedingly beneficial to the lodges concerned. It has brought the membership of each county together and made the workers acquainted with each other. This association, one with another, has put interest into the work, encouraged higher efficiency and made for stronger and better lodges.

Delinquent Lodges and the Deputies.

There can be no dispute that a lodge, like an individual, that gets into debt, has a double burden to carry. It has been the experience of this Order that each year a large number of lodges would allow themselves to become delinquent. Time passes rapidly, and soon these delinquent lodges would find that they were not only delinquent for one term, but still another had rolled around, and then the debt would be impossible of payment, just the same as the member who allows himself to become in arrears finds it a severe burden to not only take care of his present obligations, but must pay for time passed and gone, with the result that he is soon numbered among those "dropped for non-payment of dues." The District Deputies have been advised of those lodges that were delinquent, and from time to time have visited and encouraged them, assisting them to get on their feet, and the result is that the number of delinquent lodges has been reduced to the minimum. Most of the lodges at the present time reported delinquent are, to all intents and purposes, dead.

Responsibility for Increase in Membership.

It is altogether likely that, if twenty members were asked if the Sovereign Grand Lodge was of any value to the Order, the answer of some, at least, would be "No."

If the same number were asked if the Grand Lodge was of value to the Order, some would fail to see any use of maintaining that body.

If a vote was taken in the lodges on the question as to the usefulness of the Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master, and the Grand Warden, or any of the Grand Officers, without question some would vote that these officers were "useless" as far as the lodge was concerned, notwithstanding that the Grand Lodge and the Grand Officers are a very important part of the organization, without which there would be no lodges at all.

In answering the question as to whether the increase in membership in your lodge is due to the activities of your District Deputy, you should keep in mind that the general progress of the Order is reflected in your lodge, and your members are enthused or depressed, as the case may be, by what is taking place around about them. The general reputation of the organization, the harmony maintained, the prompt transaction of important business, and the conduct of the business of the Order is shared by every lodge, and to trace a certain application to the Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master, the District Deputy, or the Grand Lodge, is like tracing a certain order in a business establishment to the working of some particular advertisement when many advertisements are issued by the same firm.

As evidenced by the number who drop their membership for non-payment of dues, it is easy to find many who do not think the local lodge is worth while, but does this prove that the lodge is of no value?

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

Attest:

JOHN H. SIKES,
Grand Secretary.

JOHN W. BIRNEY,

DIPLOMA EXTRAORDINARY.

I have followed up the recommendations of my predecessors, that Noble Grands and Vice-Grands prepare themselves so that they may be granted a Diploma Extraordinary. This Diploma evidences that the person is in possession of the unwritten work of a Subordinate Lodge; can open and close the lodge without the use of the ritual and can confer the Noble Grand's part in an initiatory degree in a perfect manner. While I cannot report that all the Noble Grands and Vice-Grands have secured this diploma, nevertheless a large number have gone out, and I trust that as time goes on the Subordinate Lodge Officers will realize the advantage of becoming wholly proficient in return for the honor conferred upon them by the members of their lodge.

ORGANIZATION.

One of the great features of our deputy plan is the purpose of a real working organization in each district composed of the Subordinate Lodges within its limits. The plan has been that a meeting be held in each lodge in the district, thus giving the advantage of at least one big enthusiastic meeting wherein some degree should be conferred, in the small lodges as well as in the larger ones. I have found that many of our former lodges have never enjoyed the advantage of a visitation of a Grand Officer, or even visitations of the officers and members of the lodges in their home county. Because they were small and perhaps off the main line of travel, they have been overlooked to a large extent and the more prosperous lodges located in the larger cities have been given more frequent attention. This district organization plan contemplates that every lodge in the district shall receive equal recognition and attention. The plan has worked splendidly and many small lodges, and particularly lodges that have been dormant for years, have taken on new life and are filled with thrills of hope and expectation, the result being a natural one—increase in membership. The district meetings have had the advantage of bringing together the membership of the lodges of the county and making the Brothers acquainted with each other, and altogether have served the local lodges and made membership in them of greater value to the individual.

While many counties have organized as suggested, it has not been possible in each instance to secure ideal local leaders, but I am glad to report that in a very large number of them there has been found Brothers of exceptional ability to assume the office of President, Secretary, etc., and, wherever the local lodges have secured good leaders for these offices, the benefits have been manifest on all sides. Reports have come in, in scores of cases in which the first meeting or two was small, that the succeeding meetings have increased in attendance until local halls could not be found large enough for those who desired to attend its meetings. This has come about from the fact that it was apparent that all of the benefits to be derived from the district organization, and mostly district meetings, were retained at home and that the lodges participating were the beneficiaries. I therefore recommend that the district organization be encouraged and exist wherever possible as one of the safeguards for the future interests of this Order, because when the membership is interested in the affairs of the local organization there need be no worry as to the general condition and security of the Order.

SCHOOLS OF INSTRUCTION.

Under the direction of the Grand Instructor, many Schools of Instruction have been held throughout this Jurisdiction during the past year. That these schools have been of benefit to the rank and file of our membership is beyond question. The membership, especially those who are interested in the staff work in the lodges, have had the advantage of these schools from one end of the state to the other, and they have been largely attended. "Better work" is a mighty good slogan for Odd Fellow lodges, and, no matter how good the work may be, it is never so good but that it might possibly be improved upon; and I trust that the spirit of continual striving for improvement will never subside until there will be no lodge in this Jurisdiction but can do all its own work in such a manner that our beautiful degrees may be impressed as they should be on every applicant for membership.

REIMBURSEMENT OF DEPUTIES.

Dear Brothers: At the beginning of my administration I addressed the District Deputies in the matter of their expenses which will be incurred during the present year, indicating that there would not be available a larger amount than $15.00 for each deputy.

In this letter I stated that your compensation would largely come through the knowledge of having rendered important service to our beloved Order in Illinois.

Enclosed please find a blank upon which to render a bill of expenses incurred by you. This statement must be forwarded to Grand Secretary John H. Sikes, at Springfield, Illinois, not later than November 10, 1920.

Fraternally yours,

JOHN W. BIRNEY,
Grand Master.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

The following resolution was adopted at the 1919 session of the Grand Lodge, viz.:

Document No. 28.

G. L. Journal, 1919, page 331.

Whereas, Enabling amendments to the State Constitution are necessary in order to relieve the property, endowment and other funds from taxation and burdensome restrictions, and as the Constitutional Convention will convene before another session of this Grand Lodge, be it

Resolved, That the Grand Master be, and he is hereby instructed, to appoint a committee to prepare and present such amendments, and take such steps as may be necessary to have them adopted.

F. D. P. SNELLING, No. 601,
H. G. CORMICK, No. 179,
W. H. PEASE, No. 80,
G. F. KOESTER, No. 601,
JAMES EWING DAVIS, No. 990,
CICERO J. LINDLY, No. 3.

Pursuant to the above action by the Grand Lodge, the Grand Master appointed the following committee, viz.: John W. Yantis, P.G.M., John H. Sikes, G.S., F. D. P. Snelling, P.G.P., H. M. Blood, P.G.M., C. B. Hughes, P.G., L. M. Kagy, P.G.M., Owen Scott, P.G.M., James Ewing Davis, P.G.M., John J. Brown, P.G.M., Fred B. Merrills, P.G.M., Geo. F. Lowman, P.G., C. J. Lindly, P.G.M., D. G. Fitzgerald, and the Grand Master was considered a member of the committee.

This committee held its first meeting in Chicago on Saturday, December 20th, at the Great Northern Hotel, at which time it was formally organized by the election of Brother Yantis as chairman and Brother Sikes as secretary.

The second meeting was held in Springfield on Saturday, January 10th, at the St. Nicholas Hotel. The third meeting was held in Springfield on February 18, 1920. The above committee acted in conjunction with a similar committee appointed by the Masons and also a committee appointed by the Knights of Pythias. The main object of this committee was to see that the chartered rights and the future welfare of fraternal organizations were properly taken care of in the proposed new State Constitution. Several proposals are now being considered by the Constitutional Convention, notably Nos. 103, 154, and 157. It is believed that these proposals will fully protect the interests of our Order should they be adopted by the Convention and be embodied in the new State Constitution.

D. G. FITZGERRELL, GRAND MASTER, A. F. & A. M.

One of the pleasant events during my administration was to assist in the initiation of Brother D. G. Fitzgerald, of Normal, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Illinois. At this important and unusual event the following Grand Officers and prominent members of our Order were present and assisted in the initiation, viz.:

Grand Master John W. Birney.
Deputy Grand Master C. A. Robbins.
Grand Warden A. L. Yantis.
Grand Conductor J. D. Phillips.

Grand Chaplain R. B. Doan.
Grand Instructor H. M. Blood.
Grand Marshal G. J. Johnson, and others. The initiatory degree was conferred upon him in the hall of Odd Fellows Lodge No. 783, of Normal. A banquet was served at 6:00 o'clock and following the initiation a program of addresses was given. Brother Fitzgerald expressed himself as being highly pleased with the degree work of the Order, particularly with the management and work being done at our two Homes, which he had previously visited.

BILLIE VIRGINIA BIRNEY.

The greatest joy that has come to Mrs. Birney and myself came to us on July 2, when a little daughter was born. We have named her Billie Virginia Birney, and sometime we hope to bring her to the Grand Lodge so that you may get acquainted with her. Edgar A. Guest has said:

"Little girls are mighty nice,
Take 'em any way they come,
They are always worth the price,
Life without them would be glum;
Run earth's lists of treasurers through,
Pile 'em high until they fall,
Gold and costly jewels, too,
Little girls is best of all.

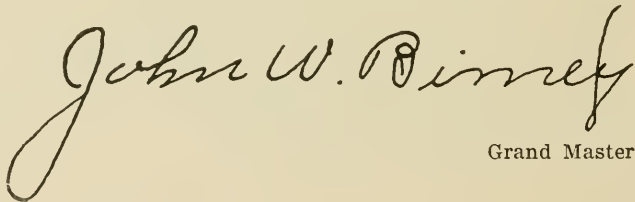

God has made some lovely things—
Roses red an' skies of blue,
Trees an' babbling silver springs,
Gardens glistenin' with dew—
But take every gift to man,
Big an' little, great an' small,
Judge it on its merits, an'
Little girls is best of all!"

CONCLUSION.

The year of 1920 has been to me a very joyous one. I have served you as Grand Master the best I knew how. The wonderful increase in the Order this year has been brought about largely through the combined efforts of an interested membership. The slogan, "I will help," seems to have been contagious and has proven that harmony and team work bring results. The fraternal regard shown me as Grand Master by the Grand Officers, District Deputy Grand Masters, Rebekah officers and the thousands of members in both branches of the Order, I shall never forget. Their courtesy and hospitality on all occasions bespeak volumes for the high regard in which your Grand Officers are held, and I assure you that my interest in the Order will never grow less.

I wish to especially thank Past Grand Master H. M. Blood for the great assistance he has given me throughout the year in his work as Grand Instructor. While his duties have been very strenuous, there never was a time that he did not go where I asked him, and, in every instance, he met with the most hearty welcome, and thrilled his audiences by his earnest work and words as few could do. I want to thank Deputy Grand Master Brother C. A. Robbins and Grand Warden Brother A. L. Yantis for their kindly assistance to me. Also Grand Secretary Brother J. H. Sikes and his efficient office force who have always willingly aided me in every way possible when called upon. To Sister Ida E. G. Sherman and other officers of the Rebekah Assembly, I wish to express my grateful thanks for their assistance to me in matters pertaining to the Rebekah Branch of the Order.

I have not words at my command to express to you my appreciation for the privilege and honor conferred upon me, but suffice it to say, I shall be ever grateful.

Grand Master.

REPORT OF DEPUTY GRAND MASTER.

DIXON, ILL., October 26, 1920.

Mr John W. Birney, Honorable Grand Master:

I herewith submit to you and through you to the Brothers of Illinois my report as Deputy Grand Master for the term just drawing to a close. And in submitting my report I desire to state that, owing to environments over which I had no control, my labors for the order were not as extensive as I sincerely hoped they would be. However, I have been permitted to attend the following meeting during the year:

I held Schools of Instruction, exemplifying the degrees and explaining the teachings of the charges and lectures of the ritual, at Rockford, Harvey, South Chicago, Clinton, Rockford, Rockport and Barry. Gave anniversary addresses at Savanna, Marseilles, and Earlville. Gave memorial addresses at Rock Island, Freeport, Marengo, and Woodstock. Attended district meeting and special session of the Grand Lodge at Freeport. Acted as installing officer in joint installation ceremonies at Kent Lodge, Rockford. Attended three other special meetings at Rockford. Attended three meetings at Stillman Valley and assisted in degree work. Attended three meetings at Amboy and assisted in degree work, acting as conductor in the initiatory degree, as Jonathan in the first degree, and as the Noble Grand in the second degree. Attended one meeting at Normal, at which time I officiated as Vice Grand in the initiatory degree. Attended three meetings at Lee Center, at one of the meetings of which I assisted in the program of burning the bonds of indebtedness against the lodge, which amounted to $8,725, thereby leaving the lodge property free from all incumbrances. Attended a meeting at East Moline and gave a lecture on the spirit of Odd Fellowship.

By request of Brother A. M. Paul, of Moline, I attended a meeting at Coal Valley and gave a lecture on the teachings of the initiatory degree. Attended three meetings at Oregon and was instrumental in having a canton instituted there with a membership of 67. Attended a meeting at Savanna and assisted in boosting plans by which the members of the lodge there expected to raise $40,000 with which to repair and equip the building which the lodge had just purchased. I also made quite a number of other visits to lodges, but, as they were not in response to invitations, do not list them here.

In submitting my report, I desire to express my gratitude to the Brothers who greeted me so cordially on the occasion of my visitation to their lodge. To these Brothers I extend my most heartfelt thanks.

In bringing my report to a close, I desire to state to the Brothers of this jurisdiction that, while my services to the order this year have not been what I desired to have them be or expected them to be, next year I expect to give to our fraternity the best service I have in me.

Sincerely and fraternally submitted,

DR. C. A. ROBBINS,

REPORT OF GRAND WARDEN.

SHELBYVILLE, ILL., October 30, 1920.

Hon. John W. Birney, Grand Master, Bloomington, Illinois:

DEAR BROTHER BIRNEY—Again, after what has seemed a very short year, we are completing another cycle in the history of Illinois Odd Fellowship.

The great growth of the Order during our Centennial year, and the impetus given to the work by our splendid Past Grand Master, L. M. Kagy, have been ably followed up during this past year under your leadership. I beg the privilege of saying here, that throughout the state I have never heard a word of criticism concerning your administration as Grand Master, and the absence of bickerings and strife speaks its own approval of your executive actions.

It has been my privilege, as Grand Warden, to attend many interesting meetings of the Order, and to render such service as was in my power in various parts of the state.

Chief among these occasions I recall the consolidation services at Chicago when Adelphi Lodge No. 8, Congress Lodge No. 362, and Home Lodge No. 416, were merged into one great body of Odd Fellows. The consolidation was under the able direction of Past Grand Master Blood, and it was indeed a privilege to represent the Grand Master at this meeting and to address the splendid meeting of Odd Fellows there assembled.

Another meeting which showed the enthusiastic progress being made by Odd Fellowship was the annual Past Grands' night of Orient Lodge No. 626, at Chicago Heights, where I spoke February 26, 1920.

Among the strong lodges of southern Illinois is Centralia Lodge No. 17, at Centralia, where the goal of 500 members will soon be reached. I attended the School of Instruction and special session of the Grand Lodge held there this summer, and also stopped off there on the occasion of the consolidation of the two lodges in that city. Great credit is due in that community to the work and enthusiasm of Bro. Pile, District Deputy, and Bro. Cobb, President of District No. 88.

My time on the last named occasion was limited as I was going to Carbondale to address the Southern Illinois Odd Fellows' Association, on the occasion of their annual meeting. Past Grand Master Sayler and Sister Sherman, President of the Rebekah Assembly, were present and addressed the association. The enthusiasm of this organization is indicative of the spirit of Southern Illinois Odd Fellowship.

I recall with pleasure the meeting of Odd Fellows Lodge No. 783 at Normal, when the Initiatory degree was conferred upon Honorable D. G. Fitzgerrell, Grand Master of the Masons of Illinois by the Grand Lodge Degree Team, upon which I had the honor to serve.

On January 6th I attended the meeting of Yantisville Lodge, where public installation services were conducted, following which I presented twenty-five-year jewels to three of the Brothers.

Without full details, visits have been made to other lodges in the state, including Fidelity Lodge No. 576 and Coles County Lodge No. 260, and several times I have been able to visit the Old Folks' Home at Mattoon, both when the Board of Trustees has been in session and between its meetings. The condition of the Home, under the management of our Trustees and the able supervision of Brother Sayler, should bring pride to all Odd Fellows in the state.

There have been many meetings which I have wanted to attend but could not because of conflicting dates, and I look forward to the opportunity of visiting those lodges whose invitations I have had to decline in the past.

In conclusion, Grand Master, may I express my deep sense of gratitude to Illinois Odd Fellowship for the privilege of serving as Grand Warden; and to you, Grand Master, I express the pleasure that it has been to me to be associated with you in this great work, and to attempt to be of such service to you as my opportunities offered. I thank you for your unfailing courtesies.

Fraternally yours,

A. L. YANTIS,
Grand Warden.

REPORT OF THE GRAND CHAPLAIN.

ARMINGTON, ILL., November 1, 1920.

Mr John W. Birney, Grand Master I. O. O. F. of Illinois, Bloomington, Ill.:

DEAR BROTHER BIRNEY:—It affords me great pleasure to tender you the following report of my work as Grand Chaplain for the past year.

This has indeed been a wonderful year in Odd Fellowship and it has been a real privilege to be associated with yourself and the other Grand Officers in the work which you have carried on with such marked success. I wish to express my thanks for the opportunity of a more extended acquaintance with our beloved Order and with the splendid men and women who constitute its membership. Their spirit has been a real inspiration and their manifest loyalty to the great principles of our institution insures its continued progress in the years to come.

As Grand Chaplain we have had the pleasure of visiting the following lodges: West Point No. 844, Englewood No. 858, Bloomington No. 400, Normal No. 783, Venice Rebekah Lodge No. 570, Towanda Lodge No. 837, Western Star No. 1, Alton, Ill.; Viola No. 638, Minier, Ill.; Logan No. 176, Atlanta, Ill., and Brighton Park No. 639, Chicago.

We have also been privileged to attend district meetings at Pekin, Lexington, Hopedale, Manito, McLeansboro, Mt. Vernon, and Paris. It is a matter of considerable regret to us that on account of pressure of other duties we could not accept several invitations which were tendered by us by lodges for special occasions during the year.

It has also been a very great pleasure to visit both of our excellent homes and to rejoice at the splendid work that is being done by those in whose capable hands the superintendence of these institutions has been intrusted. We have been impressed with the air of happiness and contentment which seems to pervade both the Old People's Home and the Orphans' Home. It has been gratifying to note the manifest economy and efficiency in all of the phases of the management and to sense the real heart interest which those in control have in the work they are doing.

We have also, at various times during the year, had the privilege of speaking to the Odd Fellows of the state through the Odd Fellows Herald. The kind things that have been said about these letters have encouraged us to feel that perhaps some small amount of good has been done in this way. It is our firm conviction that our fraternal press is doing a work of great and special value and should have the enthusiastic support and attention of every member of the Order.

We regard newspapers, trade journals, church publications, and other specialized periodicals as essential to our personal success. In like manner our splendid Odd Fellow publications will help us to keep in touch with the heart throb of the Order and help us to move forward in harmony with the steps of its progress. If every Odd Fellow family in the state were reading regularly one of our excellent papers, the amount of good which would result to the Order would be beyond all computation.

Among other things, we have been continually impressed with the unparalleled success of the District organization now in force and with the superior type of men who have been selected to serve as District

Deputies. This plan of organized effort has literally raised many dead and dying lodges to a new life of usefulness and it has imparted to all of our lodges a degree of inspiration toward better work which has never before been given them. The very success of the plan seems to demand its continuation. Doubtless, as the Grand Officers and the District Deputies become more experienced in this work, other methods will be developed whereby it will bring forth results even more far-reaching than those already attained.

It has also been our privilege to witness work in various degrees conferred by different lodges. We have been astonished at the uniform excellence with which this has been done. It has been especially gratifying to see the earnest effort that is put forth to convey to the candidates the vital and serious significance of Odd Fellowship. We cannot but feel that this is the natural and logical fruitage of the painstaking and thorough-going instruction which has been given through the years by Bro. H. M. Blood and his co-workers.

As a result of the year's experience, we are emboldened to say that we feel that, with all of the splendid showing of results attained, Odd Fellowship is just facing its greatest and most significant opportunity. Tens of thousands of people are looking our way and are ready to embrace the workable, straightforward fraternalism which our Order affords. We have the spirit and the machinery to take advantage of this opportunity. If there is danger of failure anywhere it is within ourselves. We must seek to deepen and to enlarge our appreciation of the principles of the Order. We must continually endeavor to increase our power to teach these principles through the ritual and through the practices of the Order so that the soul of our great institution may grow along with its body. We must enlarge the measure of our support for our homes. We must get the vision of Odd Fellowship, not only as a source of personal benefit, but as a mighty force of world betterment.

Again thanking you for the honors and privileges you have permitted me to enjoy during the past year and assuring you of my deepest personal regards for yourself and your associate Grand Officers, I submit this report. May our Heavenly Father attend with His blessings all the work that is being done in the name of Friendship, Love, and Truth.

Sincerely and fraternally,

R. B. DOAN,

Grand Chaplain.

REPORT OF GRAND INSTRUCTOR.

CHICAGO, November 1, 1920.

Hon. John W. Birney, Grand Master I. O. O. F., Bloomington, Ill.:

DEAR BROTHER BIRNEY:—With this report, I close my term as Grand Instructor for 1920. I cannot help but look back ten years, when I first took an interest in the affairs of the Order as a whole in Illinois, and compare the progress made. That we have made great progress, is well established.

When I first began to observe the work of the lodges, I recall I never failed to comment on the enterprise of those here and there who could fill their stations without using a ritual. Particularly did I offer fulsome commendations when I discovered a corps of officers in a Subordinate Lodge who could open and close their lodge without reference to the "books."

In these days, it is noticeable, and altogether unusual, to see a regularly installed officer reading from a ritual. If some officer has failed to commit to memory the charge pertaining to his office, some Brother will hasten to explain, and offer assurance that it will soon be corrected.

The quality of the work in the exemplification of our degrees is much improved. We have many lodges in this state that are devoting much time and intelligent effort to really perfecting their work, and are on the high road to success.

As a whole, I am exceedingly proud of our Subordinate Lodges. I do not believe any Jurisdiction can make as high an average as the lodges of Illinois.

The Work of the Past Year.

Immediately after the close of the last session of the Grand Lodge, I began an intensive campaign for the purpose of not only retaining the interest aroused during the Centennial Year, but adding to it, until the whole Jurisdiction, individually and collectively, should feel the glow of sustained enthusiasm, and place themselves in position to reap the rich harvest I saw immediately ahead.

The Districts having been reduced to the limits of the counties, afforded a better opportunity to organize the lodges into a District Organization. I have urged such organization, and in many cases, I have personally been present and helped in their formation. Wherever the lodges have organized and elected as their officers competent leaders, an immense amount of good has resulted. Beginning perhaps with small meetings, the attendance has steadily increased from month to month, until "capacity" meetings have become the rule.

A majority of the Districts, I believe, are now organized and are holding regular monthly meetings. Wherever they are not organized, it is because no one has stepped forward from the local lodges, and done the preliminary work necessary to impress the membership that the idea is for their own good.

I know of scores of cases where Brothers had lived in one town and held membership in the Order for many years, and had never visited the lodge in the next town, to say nothing of having become acquainted with the membership belonging to the county in which they lived. These District meetings have afforded an opportunity to become acquainted, and to work together. These meetings, where Odd Fellows in large numbers would come together, a good staff exemplify one of the degrees, some good talks, and perhaps a cup of coffee offered as a good night, have had the effect of arousing dormant lodges, making active members out of inactive members, and have laid the ground work for unlimited progress in this state, if properly carried out and encouraged from year to year.

The present system of District Deputies in this state is now beginning to be understood, not only in the lodges, but by the Deputies themselves. If all that had been aimed at was to install the officers twice a year, there would have been no need for a change. Odd Fellowship in these days, in Illinois, is not what it was forty years ago, or even twenty years ago. Our membership has grown until we have possibly 125,000 members. Our net gain for the first six months of the present term was as large as the whole membership of some Jurisdictions, employing all the machinery of organization we have here. Arizona is credited with 2,617 members; Delaware with 4,923; Florida with 4,873; Louisiana with 3,354, as well as many others, not larger than a half dozen of our larger lodges.

The time has come, when, if we are to play the part in the affairs of the country we are entitled to, we must realize that we are an immense organization of selected men, professing to stand for God, our country, and our fellowman, and should be so organized and equipped as to be able to give the best possible account of ourselves. This we cannot do unless we "pull together." The nearer we can come to working together, all for one, and one for all, whether that be in the lodge, the county, or the state, the sooner will we come into our own, and be recognized by everybody as an Order worth while belonging to because of the lessons we teach and the good we do.

The county as a unit makes a compact and workable organization, especially so because the people of the various counties are used to handling their civil affairs in the county jurisdictions, and as time passes, and better roads are built, making travel easier, it will be possible to attend lodge without great inconvenience in any part of a county, and then the District meetings of the lodges will be regarded as something that no Odd Fellow can afford to miss.

If the holding of largely attended meetings was the sole and final object, there would be but little in it. The real object of these meetings is to enthuse the members and impress upon their minds the true value of Odd Fellowship, and send them to their homes filled with a desire to serve the Order through their respective lodges, talk Odd Fellowship, live Odd Fellowship, and recommend the same to their friends. Men are not inclined to become overly enthused when no opportunity is afforded them to see what this Order is when circumstances are right.

I have brought into use the considerable experience I have had in organization and promotional work, and tried to apply the same general principles that would be used were this a great business organization with a business end in view. I have tried to promote harmony and good feeling everywhere. I have discouraged the small things which tend to disturb the membership and take the mind off the main objects sought. To what extent I have succeeded must be left to others to say.

During the past year I have tried to keep in touch with the lodges and membership through correspondence, as well as by personal visits. I have written more than two thousand letters. In order to accomplish this, it has been necessary for me to have an outfit at my home as well as in my office. I do not recall an evening nor a Sunday when I have been home that I have not spent some portion of the time at my typewriter. I have tried to reply promptly to all letters received, as an example of "good business" as well as courtesy. In all this correspondence, I have never received a harsh letter, but, on the other hand, I have received scores that I shall preserve because of the sentiments expressed.

In Conclusion.

I have implicit faith in Odd Fellowship. I am proud of its century of recorded successes. I know what it is doing right now. I have unbounded faith in the future of our Order. We, in Illinois, can be just whatever we desire to be, for we are now in a splendid position to forge rapidly ahead in the service of humanity. We are at our best right at a time when the world is upset and the future uncertain. Odd Fellowship should exert its beneficent influence on the side of moderation and obedience to law and constituted authority. I believe it will prove its profession of "faithfulness to country" and become even a greater pillar supporting the institutions that are the rightful heritage of American generations yet unborn.

To you, Brother Birney, I wish to express my appreciation for the patience you have exhibited, for the advice and kindly directions given, and your uniform interest in the work you assigned to me. I have tried to merit, to some extent at least, the confidence you have reposed in me, and I part with you with the hope that your future will be bright, and that the "little stranger," that came to your home so recently, may have the benefit of your care until she shall have grown to a mature woman.

Fraternally submitted,

H. M. BLOOD,
Grand Instructor

REPORT OF ASSISTANT GRAND INSTRUCTOR.

Sister Henry was called on and gave a very interesting talk, and then I was called on and gave a short talk on the nature and work of Odd Fellowship; and I expect to go over to Tonica Wednesday, October 13th. Brother Crowder got over 60 names for the New Rebekah Lodge the night of September 15, and we had a chicken fry.

THIRD REPORT BY CICERO J. LINDLY OF NO. 3.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows:

The annual visit of your Finance Committee to the Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home at Lincoln was made on Saturday, October 16, 1920. Doctor J. A. Lucas, the Superintendent, was present.

We audited the accounts and inspected the Home. We found the property, both farm and Home, in excellent physical condition.

During the past year the Administration Building has been re-decorated and this has made a much needed improvement in the condition of this building.

The Rebekah State Assembly has caused to be installed a refrigerating system which is now in successful operation. The Order is, indeed, under great obligation to the Sisters for the wonderful interest which they have manifested in looking after the welfare of our Homes.

During the past year, I Will Lodge No. 141, of Chicago, and Keystone Rebekah Lodge of Chicago have contributed the necessary funds for the installation of equipments for the playgrounds of the children. The children derive much amusement and a great benefit to their health from the exercise which they receive on these equipments. It would be, indeed, gratifying if each individual who had contributed to this recreation for the children could witness the real pleasure that the children derive from this outdoor exercise. We realize that many of our lodges are contributing liberally to the various activities in connection with our Homes but these lodges who were instrumental in providing these needful things for our children are to be congratulated and we wish that more of our lodges would emulate this splendid example and thereby bring this membership in closer touch with this institution.

FOURTH REPORT BY JAMES EWING DAVIS OF NO. 990.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows:

The annual visit of your Finance Committee to the Odd Fellows' Home at Mattoon, Illinois, was made on Thursday, October 28, 1920. Brother John W. Yantis, the Secretary of the Board of Trustees, as well as E. R. Sayler, the Superintendent, were present.

For many years the Home has been obliged to secure its water from the City of Mattoon. This has been an item of considerable expense and the Board of Trustees have been endeavoring to devise ways and means whereby they might economize in the matter of their water bills. The Board, during the past summer, put down a large well upon the Home grounds and was fortunate in securing a good supply of water. The Home can now be furnished with water from its own wells sufficient to supply the needs of the Home as well as the farm. The initial cost of the installation of this system will be considerable, but, when you realize that the reduction in prices for water will be permanent, the Order can look upon this work as a permanent investment which will doubtless yield good returns.

The old greenhouse, which has been in operation at the Home for a great many years, has been torn down and a much more modern greenhouse is now being erected by the Rebekah State Assembly. This is simply another manifestation of the splendid work which is being done by our Sisters to add to the usefulness of this great institution which has been erected for the benefit of our Sisters and Brothers and their wives.

The buildings and grounds are in good condition.

During the past year the farm has yielded abundantly in the matter of crops, fruit and vegetables for the Home.

The present membership of the Home is 162.

ODD FELLOWS' LEAGUE AND RELIEF BOARD.

CHICAGO, ILL., October 10, 1920.

*John W. Birney, Grand Master Grand Lodge of Illinois, Bloomington.
Illinois:*

DEAR BRO. BIRNEY:—Another year is fast closing, and in conformity of the constitution and by-laws of the Odd Fellows' League and Relief Board, we beg to submit the following report:

During the year that is just closing, there have been reported to this office 231 cases of sickness and distress; 41 deaths have been reported and the funerals arranged, or the remains shipped to the Brother's home lodge; 38 have asked for and received legal advice from the President; 113 have asked for employment; this has been a hard part of our work, as most of the Brothers are along in years; we have had calls from 66 employers asking for help; 6 Brothers have been reported missing; 10 imposters have been stopped; in addition to these calls, 612 have called for information of various kinds. Some of these cases have involved a large amount of time and correspondence—over 3,000 letters having been written.

These calls have come from several Jurisdictions: California, 9; Arizona, 2; Washington, 4; Kansas, 5; Michigan, 16; Ohio, 9; Indiana, 17; Minnesota, 5; Alabama, 2; South Dakota, 3; Rhode Island, 1; Canada, 19; Wisconsin, 9; New York, 10; Maryland, 3; Louisiana, 2; Tennessee, 2; Missouri, 6; Florida, 2; Pennsylvania, 10; Alaska, 2; Texas, 1; Kentucky, 2; Virginia, 2; Oregon, 2; Honolulu, 1; Illinois, 98.

Visiting and sojourning members of our Order requiring aid or the courtesies of our fraternity, by law are supposed to report to the nearest lodge, but in a city like Chicago it is difficult for a stranger to locate a lodge in this vast city. To these the office of the Odd Fellows' League and Relief Board is open during business hours, and is centrally located, and is easily found in the telephone directory. We have arranged and are issuing a directory of the lodges of the county, giving their location, time and place of meeting. This, we find, is becoming quite popular.

The work of the Odd Fellows' League and Relief Board is varied in a great city like Chicago, where thousands are arriving and departing every day. Many become involved in temporary difficulties. To the members of the Order the office of the Odd Fellows' League and Relief Board is always open and ready to give aid and sympathy, or advice. Those who have experienced this need will appreciate what it means.

Occasionally some unprincipled individual tries to take advantage of our Order, and through telling a hard luck story, giving the name and number of a lodge in some distant Jurisdiction, procures a donation from some lodge, but through the efforts of the Odd Fellows' League and Relief Board many of these have been stopped, and lodges everywhere saved both money and annoyance.

The Odd Fellows' League and Relief Board is supported by the voluntary contributions from the lodges of Cook county. Last year the lodges subscribed to a fund to be known as a revolving relief fund, to be used for relief only, and to be kept intact at all times. These amounts have been paid in, and on January 1st, 1920, was put to work, but at the close of each year there will always be a deficit, which must be made up to keep this fund intact. At the last session of the Grand Lodge an appropriation was made to assist in the work of the organization as needed, and we are pleased to report that this appropriation has been the means of increasing the usefulness of the organization. And for the first time in its history the necessary funds have been at hand to give "relief where it is needed, and at a time when it was required," and we trust that the Grand Lodge will see the necessity of continuing to aid the organization.

Fraternally yours,

ODD FELLOWS' LEAGUE AND RELIEF BOARD,

F. W. JACKSON, General Secretary.

INTRODUCTION.

---

Hon. John W. Birney,
Grand Master, I. O. O. F. of Illinois:

Grand Master: Again it becomes our duty and privilege to make to you, and to the membership throughout the State, our annual report of the Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home. This report will show in detail, all transactions during the year, giving receipts and disbursements, by months and in the aggregate, comparative statements of receipts and disbursements, for the four years, 1917 to 1920, the names of all children in the Home, October 1st, 1920, and much other information that will be of interest to the Odd Fellows of Illinois.

Applications.

During the year, we received and considered applications for the admission of ninety (90) children into the Home, of which forty were accepted, and fifty were not admitted. Of the ninety children, only nine were full orphans, all of whom were admitted, thirty-six were half orphans with mother living, and forty-five were half orphans with father living. Twenty-nine were accepted whose mother was living, and two admitted, whose father was living.

This would seem to indicate that many members and lodges do not understand that the Home is maintained for the care and education of the children of deceased Odd Fellows, as provided in the laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and the Charter of our Home. As we understand it, children are not eligible for admission to the Home, if the father is living, and unless there are conditions that lead the directors to believe that the children are "practically full orphans", they are not admitted.

Donations.

Donations have not been as numerous or as valuable as in former years, due, no doubt, to the fact that all Lodges, both Subordinate and Rebekah, contribute to the Home by the payment of per capita tax.

Among the notable donations during the year may be mentioned the play ground equipment by I Will Lodge No. 141 and Keystone Rebekah Lodge No. 383, of Chicago. These Lodges raised a fund of $500 which was used in the purchase of apparatus for our play ground. The thanks of the Board and of aall the children are extended to these splendid Lodges, for their work in behalf of the Home.

The Grand Encampment raised a considerable sum for the same purpose, but as it was not needed at this time, the money was used for the purchase of equipment for the Boy Scouts of the Home.

In this report will be given a complete list of all donations, both of money and material. Many of these donations were for a specific purpose, as for Christmas dinner, and many were contributed for the use of certain children.

Improvements.

During the past year, it has been necessary to expend considerable money in making general repairs. For two years preceding, but little work of this character was done, because of war conditions, and it was found that repairs could no longer be delayed. The main building was in the worst condition, and most of the work has been done on that building. The wooden floor of the front porch, and the wooden steps were replaced with cement, all exterior wood and metal work, and fire escapes were given two coats of paint, and the plumbing put into good condition. At this time, new steel ceilings are being put in, in the corridors of the basement, and the ceilings and walls of the corridors and basement rooms will be painted.

It was also necessary to put in new return pipes from the West Cottage to the boiler room, as the building could not be kept warm, during the coldest weather.

A notable improvement was the installation of a refrigerating plant in the Domestic Science building. This work was done under the direction of the Board, but the expense was paid by the Assembly officials, from the Assembly Home Fund. President Sherman and the Advisory Board deserve great credit for their action in making it possible to secure this plant at this time.

Proposed Improvements.

It is planned to repair and redecorate the east cottage during the coming year, and the buildings will all be in good condition. It will, however, be necessary in the near future to replace other porches and steps with cement, as they are beginning to show the effects of wear and the weather.

Another improvement that has been considered, but which has not been fully decided, is the installation of a plant to furnish needed electric light and power. At present, we are dependent on the Lincoln

Electric Light and Power plant, and the cost of their service is a considerable item during the year.

The Board has also considered the advisability of installing a water supply for the Home, but on account of the depth of the wells in this locality, and the uncertainty of securing an adequate supply, we have hesitated to spend the large amount that would be necessary in making the experiment.

Increased Expenses.

It will be noted from the report that the expenses of the Home have increased considerably over preceding years. This is not remarkable, for the greater part of the year was marked by advancing prices. We found it necessary to advance the wages and salaries of all employees, as many of them were offered greater pay in other lines of work, and we knew it would be almost impossible to secure other help, if they should leave us. All staple articles advanced in price, and the year was one of uncertainty and anxiety. Fortunately, it appears that the tide has turned, and we may hope that the coming year will see the continuation of the trend toward normal times and prices.

How to Gain Admission.

Lodges or guardians, wishing to place in the Home children who are eligible to its benefits, should apply to the Superintendent, Dr. J. A. Lucas, Lincoln, Illinois, for a blank form of application. The blank application must be signed by the guardian, if the child is a full orphan. And every child, before admission, must have a guardian. If a half orphan, the living parent must sign the application. The Lodge of which the father was a member, must also sign the application (under seal). The application should be returned to the Superintendent, who will present it to the Board of Directors for consideration at their first meeting thereafter.

The following is a list of all the children in our Home Oct. 1, 1920, together with the date of entrance, name, where from, date of birth, and name and number of the lodge certifying to them:

OUR HOME SCHOOL.

Our Home school compares favorably with the best schools of the State. Our building is modern in every way and complies with school law of Illinois in regard to heating, seating, lighting, ventilation and sanitation.

Our Home School is the pride of every Odd Fellow in Illinois and the Board strives to make the work equal to that of any school in the State by securing teachers whose preparation is the very best. The teachers and pupils under the leadership of Miss Winnifred Taylor, our efficient principal, are manifesting a great interest in their work. This year has resulted in good work being done in the school.

Brother J. W. Birney, Grand Master, was unable to be present at the graduating exercises because of the death of a relative. The commencement address was delivered by Past Grand Master H. M. Blood, Chief of Examiners and Instructors. It was replete with practical suggestions and encouragements to the graduating class. At the close of this address, Brother Blood, on behalf of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, presented each graduate with ten dollars in gold.

Just before the exercises closed Grand Master Birney arrived and made a short address, which was well received.

The graduating class of 1920 consisted of two boys and four girls. The diploma, which admit them into any high school in the State, were presented by Superintendent J. A. Lucas to Earl Wayne McGuire, Henry Dale Karr, Alice Hindman, Anna M. Hammell, Pauline B. Herin and Edith Adler.

Officials present were: W. H. Pease, President of the Board of Directors; J. J. Crowder, Secretary; John H. Steiner, W. H. McGaughey, J. Parker Smith, all members of the Board of Directors, also John H. Sikes, Grand Secretary. All made short talks to the children.

The following is a list of the twelve pupils living at the Home who attended Lincoln High School last year:

Alfred Magnuson	Donald Cooper	Mary Jones
Lowell Brown	Troy Fowler	Laura Trimmer
James Radford	Pearl Grimes	Thelma Dash
Wesley Wiberg	Alta Mae Dellitt	Jessie Antle

Alfred Magnuson was graduated from the high school in June, completing the four-year course in three years. He is now attending Lincoln College.

The following pupils from the Home were members of the Lincoln High School orchestra:

Alfred Magnuson	Troy Fowler	Laura Trimmer
Donald Cooper	Pearl Grimes

We have an enrollment of 160 pupils in our school.

The following is a list of the teachers employed in the school this year:

Winifred Taylor, principal and teacher of eighth grade—13 pupils.

Mabel Jackson, sixth and seventh grades—38 pupils.

Clara Wonderly, fifth and part of sixth grade—41 pupils.

Lucy Tutwiler, third and fourth grades—37 pupils.

Grace R. Barnwell, first and second grades—31 pupils.

Gulda Peters—Instructor of music in all grades.

Mary Wharton—Instructor domestic science.

H. O. Merry—Instructor of band.

The Band.

Under the successful leadership of Prof. H. O. Merry, Lincoln College, the band has become quite popular throughout the State. Prof. Merry has had many years of experience as a teacher.

Alfred Magnuson will continue as leader, to the delight of all who know him.

Health of the Children.

The general health of the children has been very good. However,, we had fifty cases of measles last winter, but nearly every case was in light form and all made a good recovery.

More than 30 children have had their tonsils removed.

Lucile White.

Lucile has been in the Open Air Colony for nearly two years. She is holding her own but is still unable to leave the sanitarium. Lucile was sixteen years old last July, but the Board of Directors are looking after her with the same tender solicitude as when she first entered the colony. Lucile has so deported herself that all have learned to love her and I am told they call her their "Fairy". It is surely a great source of joy to know that one of our dear girls who has been sick two years is so happy and her disposition so sweet that no criticisms come of her conduct. On the other hand, come words of her beautiful life. She has many visitors all of whom are charmed by her lovely disposition. Go and see her.

Jesse Lipsey.

A year ago Jesse was in the Colony. Now he is at St. Elmo and at this time is ready to go to work. He is in good health and happy.

Grand Encampment.

At a late date it was agreed upon by the Grand Patriarch, Samuel E. Erickson, and the Board, that the fund raised for play ground equipment might be used for the uniforming of a company of boy scouts. Just as soon as this organization is effected the uniforms will be purchased. The amount is $362.50.

Playground Equipment.

A giant stride, a merry-go-round and a ring treveler have been furnished the Home for the playground by I Will Lodge No. 141 and Keystone Rebekah Lodge No. 383 of Chicago. A long felt want has been supplied by these splendid lodges. They set to work a year ago and raised $500 with which this equipment was purchased. The boys and girls appreciate this generous gift more than words can tell. If you will come and see them in use you will get a clear idea of how the children like them.

Rebekah State Assembly.

The appropriation of $145.33 for a Thanksgiving dinner was most heartily appreciated by the children, as they never had a better dinner. Besides we were able to give the children several bushels of apples to their great delight.

The entertainment fund of $100 furnishes us with pictures for part of the season. As the price of films has increased with the advance of everything else, we are not able to have as many films as usual. The Assembly has always greatly contributed to the comfort and pleasure of the Home. Never, however, so much as in the past two years. As the work of the Assembly will be fully reported by the Auxilliary Board, it is not necessary to mention more here.

REPORT OF THE AUXILIARY BOARD OF THE ORPHANS' HOME.

To the President, Officers and Members of the Rebekah State Assembly of the State of Illinois:

The summer has passed, and the autumn brings to our minds the near approach of our annual session. It therefore becomes my duty as Chairman of the Auxiliary Board to present to you our annual report of the conditions at the Home. Home is indeed the "dearest place" on earth when rightly made, and the memory of which remains with us until death, and will more to protect and restrain its inmates than the grandest and most eloquent sermons from the most gifted ministers and orators. In short, home is the kindergarten of all Christian work and influence, the starting point of all beautiful thoughts and deeds.

Number of Children.

The number of children in the Home at the present time is 178 (90 boys and 88 girls). The health of the children is excellent and though during the year there were quite a number who have had their tonsils and adenoids removed, all are now enjoying good health. I believe it would be impossible to find anywhere a happier bunch of children. In the five years that I have served on the Board I have never heard one complaint; but with Dr. and Sister Lucas at the Home, how could it be other than a real home? They are always doing all their power to make the children happy. It is a wonderful thing to watch the birth of a new day, where one after another the varicolored hues of the rainbow tint in successive harmonies the canvas of the eastern sky, blending and changing their beauty from darkness to a glorious dawn. It is perhaps a more wonderful thing to watch the birth of a flower, as with secret magic the hard-bound bud unfolds and merges leaf by leaf into a perfect flower, radiant in beauty and fragrant with perfume. But most wonderful of all is the gradual unfolding of the heart of a child, the reaching out of tiny tendrils of affection for sympathetic environment, the quickening response to the warmth of love's sunshine, and the ready yielding to the prompting of a suggested noble act. Truly in directing lives at such a time we, too, are "partners with the Divinity."

"Inasmuch as you have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto me."

Improvements.

Since our last report a new refrigerator plant has been put in. New shades in the children's dining room has added much to the appearance. The roof of the domestic science room has been repaired.

Seven new carpet sweepers have been bought and some electric fans. Twenty-five hats were purchased for the girls, and a number of new rubber mats for placing in front of the doors.

The East Cottage will be redecorated and the woodwork and floors refinished. In closing in behalf of the Auxiliary Board, I wish to express to the Board of Directors our deep appreciation of the many courtesies extended to us in the past year.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

The Board of Directors will ask that a change be made in regard to the meeting of the Auxiliary Board, having three meetings a year instead of two—January, June and October.

To the Superintendent and Matron, Dr. and Sister Lucas, together with the governesses and teachers, we can not find language to properly convey to those interested in the Home, the great work they are doing; the sacrifices made, and the unselfish interest taken in the welfare of the children. They are all building for a greater civilization and grander tomorrow by gradual development and unfolding that which is best and purest in the boys and girls, and thus bequeathing to the state a fine citizenship in the nable lives turned out from our Home.

May they permitted to continue their great work of building character—something that will last long after the stars have faded, is our nearest wish.

Fraternally submitted,

MYRTLE W. TANDY, P.P., Chairman,
LURA B. LATHAM, P.P.,
FANNIE SCHWARTZ,
KATHRYN HOEFER, P. T.,
EVA YOUNG.

Two Pianos.

Last summer, Mrs. Thomas Crawford Harris, of East St. Louis, visited our Home, where she was a resident for several years, and, noticing a worn-out piano in the cottage where she grew, made the remark that we needed a new one and she believed she knew some good people in her city that would willingly give us a new one. When she went she visited the lodges, and when she had finished her good work she had the money donated, with which was purchased a most beautiful piano, and it is as good as it looks. The donors are: Golden Rule No. 374, Helvetia No. 480, Pride of the Valley No. 435, St. Clair R. L. No. 742, Ruth R. L. No. 10, Leah R. L. No. 232, Harmony Encampment No. 102, Canton Queen City No. 58 and Victory Fortress No. 13.

About a week after the above piano came, another was ushered into the Home through the goodness of heart by Past Grand Master H. M. Blood and his good wife.

We had not anticipated such a surprise, as we did not know last spring where we would go to get two pianos. Ours were worn out. But some how, some way, the Lord always provides. Thank all of you for your kindness.

Acknowledgements.

We wish again to record our appreciation of the services rendered by our teachers, governesses and other employees. In the face of the fact that many of them could have secured larger pay in other places, most of them have remained with us, and given as faithful service as could be given by any one. Many of them pay little attention to the number of hours they are required to be on duty, at times, and in cases of sickness, the governesses and assistants are as faithful and attentive as if they were caring for their own children.

To the Superintendent and Matron we again extend the thanks of the Board and the membership throughout the State, for their earnest, faithful, loving care of the children placed under their guidance and protection.

And finally, Grand Master, we gratefully acknowledge the assistance you have given us during the year, which has been one of unusual trials and problems. Your long association with the Home, and your thorough familiarity with all the details of its management, have been of great assistance in our work. Your many visits to the Home, and your thoughtful suggestions have greatly aided in making the year a successful one, as we believe it has been.

Fraternally submitted,

WM. H. PEASE, Chairman,
J. H. STEINER,
J. PARKER SMITH,

INTRODUCTORY

To Grand Master J. W. Birney and the Members of the I. O. O. F. of Illinois:

We take pleasure in submitting the twenty-third annual report of the I. O. O. F. Old Folks' Home of Illinois.

During the year the same conservative care has been taken of the properties of the Home and the same careful attention administered to the needs and comfort of its members as have marked its record in the past.

The Home has experienced much difficulty at times in securing competent help at reasonable prices, but quite a number of the employees, although offered more money to go elsewhere, remained loyal to the interests of the Home, and, with the help of many of our old Brothers and Sisters, no member was allowed to suffer for want of something to eat if they were hungry, nor lack of attention if they were sick.

Good order and contentment has prevailed, as in the past. Superintendent and Matron, Brother and Sister E. R. Sayler, have given arduously of their time and ability, and their management and kind treatment of the members of the Home have met with the cordial approval of the Trustees and Advisory Board.

The Grand Master, Brother J. W. Birney, and the President of the State Assembly, Sister Ida Sherman, have made frequent visits to the Home, and we acknowledge our grateful appreciation for their helpful suggestions. The other Grand Officers have visited the Home during the year, and their visitations were happy occasions to the management and members of the Home.

Religious services and entertainments have been continued in the chapel and the best efforts put forth to subserve a happy and contented home life.

The Advisory Board, through their administrations, have added much to the comfort and pleasure of the old Brothers and Sisters of the Home, and under its supervision the greenhouse is being rebuilt and enlarged, the expense of which is being met by the Rebekah Old Folks' Home tax.

The increase in the water rates by the public service company led the Trustees to believe they should proceed at once to secure, if possible, an adequate water supply; and we are pleased to report this has been obtained, and we hope by the time the Grand Lodge convenes there will be a complete and independent water system installed at the Home.

To all who have aided us during the year by visitations and counsels, and to the fraternal press for their kindly notices, we express our sincere thanks.

Herewith we also submit our detailed report:

REPORT OF THE ADVISORY BOARD OF THE OLD FOLKS' HOME.

It is with great pleasure that we submit for your approval the annual report of the Advisory Board of the Old Folks' Home.

In April and October our meetings were held jointly with the Trustees of the Home at Mattoon. At these meetings many improvements for the Home were discussed. It has been the aim and desire of the Board to purchase such things as would tend to help with the labor question and add to the comfort and welfare of our aged sisters and brothers.

Many new electric appliances have been purchased, which facilitate the work in the kitchen and dining room as well as reducing the cost of maintenance of the Home. A bread slicer, a potato peeler, food chopper and a coffee grinder have been placed in the kitchen. A new battery of urns has been installed in the dining room, which will give the family plenty of hot coffee. Eight vacuum sweepers were purchased for use in the Home and hospital. A sweeper was chosen that will sweep and dust floors at the same time. Attachments were purchased that the bedding might be renovated when so desired.

On September 6th a special meeting of the Board was held for the purpose of accepting a contract for a new greenhouse. The greenhouse which has been in a state of collapse for some time, has been replaced by a concrete and steel structure, 28 feet by 80 feet. When complete this will be a great help to the gardeners in their work of supplying green vegetables for the table as well as housing during the winter the large palms and plants used in beautifying the grounds in summer.

The chapel has been given needed repairs. The recent wind storms having played havoc with the windows, much repairing had to be done.

Pictures and drapes have been purchased for the men's smoking room and the library. The curtains in the ladies' parlors have been turned and rehemmed and will serve for some time.

As is customary, the joint meetings were the occasion of treats for the Home family. Sister Sayler arranged very interesting musical programs and refreshments were served in the library.

During our visits to the Home every member of the Home was called upon in his or her rooms, and it is very gratifying to report that everything is in a good condition and everyone happy. Brother and Sister Sayler are very deeply loved by the Home folks and their kindly words and ways go far to keep the family happy and contented.

It has been a great help and pleasure to have our resident Sister Ida E. G. Sherman in attendance at all of our meetings. In April we also had the honor of having with us our Vice President, Sister Alice Trees, and our Warden, Sister Nellie Thompson. Their words of approval of the condition of the Home were very sincere and the Board thank them for their words of commendation.

Following is the reports, as furnished to the Board by the Superintendent and Matron of the Home:

MATTOON, ILL., April 1, 1920.

To the Advisory Board of the I. O. O. F. Old Folks' Home:

DEAR SISTERS—According to a regular custom, it becomes our duty to make our semi-annual report at this time; and in doing so we desire to express our sincere appreciation for the many favors extended to the Home and for the kindness you have shown to the management.

The association of our Advisory Board has been very pleasant and profitable for the past five years. It is the custom to retire a member each year, consequently we are accustomed to making a new acquaintance each year. We will naturally miss Sister Grace A. Henry. She has been an untiring worker in the interest of the Home and has been one of the originators of many profitable and permanent improvements. While we will miss Sister Henry, we are privileged to form the acquaintance of her successor, Sister Emma J. Rakestraw of Bloomington, whose reputation for worthy efforts needs no comment here. We welcome Sister Rakestraw as a member of the Advisory Board and trust that her association with the affairs of the Home will prove a pleasure and a blessing to her.

I desire to call your attention to a matter of great importance and one which I trust will occupy your attention. Our greenhouse is in a manner falling down. We have had hard work during the month to prevent an utter collapse. We have braced it in all manner of ways and yet it is not safe. The greenhouse is one of our valuable assets; we cannot do without it. Will you please take the matter under your consideration and arrange for the rebuilding and at the same time an addition to house our palms and large plants?

The steam table recently placed is proving a great success, the coffee mill is just the proper thing, the potato peeler is all right; in fact, we have no complaint to offer with anything you have furnished.

We herewith submit a report of the Entertainment Fund:

REPORT OF THE GRAND SECRETARY.

To the Grand Lodge of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

The Eighty-third Annual Session of the Grand Lodge of Illinois places this Jurisdiction as the third largest in the world, exceeded only by Pennsylvania and New York.

The latest statistics supplied by the Sovereign Grand Lodge give the membership of Pennsylvania at 180,277, New York at 137,245, and Illinois at 117,956.

In other words, on the first of January, 1920, Illinois was less than 20,000 members from the second place in Odd Fellowship.

During the first half of the present year we have made a net gain of more than 7,000. New York must look well to her laurels else she will exchange places with the Grand Jurisdiction of Illinois.

Our Order has never made such strides in all its history as are shown by its record for the past year. This applies not alone to growth in membership, but to good work along all lines of activities in which Odd Fellowship is engaged. The following figures from the Sovereign Grand Lodge are most gratifying, viz.:

For 1919 the net growth in membership has been divided as follows: Subordinate membership, 104,636; Encampment membership, 25,549; Rebekah membership: sisters 40,540; brothers 16,771; Patriarchs Militant membership 2,992.

The total expenditures for relief in 1919 were $7,187,862.81, and the total receipts were $23,885,579.31.

The year 1920 will record the largest increase in membership ever made in Illinois in a single year. A remarkable advancement has also been made in lodge work particularly in the interpretation of the various lectures of the ritual and notably the dramatic work. A lodge that can do the work well will always find plenty of work to do. While growth in membership is desired, we should never sacrifice our principles for numbers. We want none but men of good character. The outlook is bright. Let no one be invited within our portals who is not actuated by the pure principles of Odd Fellowship.

GRAND LODGE JOURNAL OF 1919.

The Grand Lodge Journal for the session of 1919 consisted of 634 pages.

To arrange copy, read proof, and index the Grand Lodge Journal requires the entire time of a thoroughly competent person, whom we secured in the person of Past Grand Master Owen Scott.

TRUSTEES OF THE ORPHANS' AND OLD FOLKS' HOMES.

All bills allowed by the two Boards of Trustees are forwarded to me with an attached certificate signed by the President and Secretary of the Board and countersigned by the Grand Master. These bills and vouchers are kept on file in my office for future reference, and orders on the Grand Treasurer are drawn for the several amounts. Upon these vouchers the Grand Master and myself have drawn orders on the Grand Treasurer for the sum of $62,355.81 to pay bills contracted by the Trustees of the Old Folks' Home, and the sum of $64,298.27 to pay bills contracted by the Directors of the Orphans' Home, making a total disbursement for these two charities of the sum of $126,654.08.

JUDICIARY AND APPEALS COMMITTEE.

As Secretary of the Judiciary and Appeals Committee, I report that four sessions of this committee were held, as provided by law, on the third Tuesdays of November, 1919, February, May, and August, of the present year. At the November session the By-Laws from 30 Subordinate and 8 Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the February session the By-Laws from 38 Subordinate and 8 Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the May session the By-Laws from 45 Subordinate and 17 Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the August session, the By-Laws from 49 Subordinate and 6 Rebekah Lodges were acted upon.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE GRAND LODGE CONSTITUTION.

District Deputies to Receive Mileage and Per Diem.

(Journal 1919, Document No. 50, Article 6, Section 10.)

Section 10. The Committee on Mileage and Per Diem shall report the number of miles necessarily traveled by the shortest traveled route by each Grand Officer, District Deputy Grand Master, Representative and members of the various Grand Lodge committees. The number of days' attendance of same and the amount due each. The committee shall make an estimate by allowing six cents mileage one way and four dollars per diem.

Laid over for one year.

Not adopted.

Requiring District Deputies to Be Official Instructors.

(Journal 1919, Document No. 18, Article 5, Section 2.)

Section 2. One District Deputy Grand Master shall be appointed and commissioned by the Grand Master in each district, the term of his service to be one year from the December 1st succeeding his appointment. He shall be a resident of his district, a member of a lodge therein, a Past Grand in good standing and lawfully in possession of a certificate from the Grand Instructor showing that he is proficient in the unwritten work. He shall be responsible alone to the Grand Master, obey his instructions and perform such duties as are required by the Grand Master or the laws of the Grand Lodge. The Grand Master, in his discretion, shall have the power at any time to remove any District Deputy. The District Deputy shall be subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of his lodge as any other member.

Laid over for one year.

Adopted.

Consolidation of Lodges.

(Journal 1919, Document No. 15, Article 11, Section 5.)

Section No. 5. The Grand Master, at his discretion, or the Grand Lodge, at its discretion, shall grant and issue the necessary dispensation, provided that no lodge has reported more than one-third (and in no case less than five) of the members voting against the written provision providing for the consolidation.

Laid over for one year.

Adopted.

Annual Sessions in October.

(Journal 1919, Document No. 46, Article 7, Section 1.)

Section 1. "The Grand Lodge shall meet annually on the first Tuesday in October. This meeting shall be styled the annual session. Special meetings shall be held on the call of the Grand Master. When in annual or special session fifty representative members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the Grand Lodge may adjourn from time to time until the business of the session shall have been disposed of. The annual session shall be held in the city of Springfield, except when otherwise ordered by a two-thirds vote of the Grand Lodge convened in annual session. A special session shall be held at the time and place designated by the Grand Master in the call."

Laid over for one year.

Adopted as amended to meet on third Tuesday in October.

CHARTER FEE.

It has been the policy of the Grand Lodge to assist new lodges, so far as the charter fee would permit. In other words, the Grand Lodge has furnished supplies to the full extent of the charter fee, which for many years has been $30.00 for Subordinate Lodges and $20.00 for Rebekah Lodges.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge has recently advanced the price of supplies so that it is impossible to furnish the supplies heretofore given for the charter fee without a loss. Only two things remain, viz.: To increase the charter fee or reduce the amount of supplies furnished for the charter fee. In consultation with the Grand Lodge Finance Committee, we are agreed that the charter fee should be advanced sufficiently to cover the supplies which will go out as charter supplies. Accordingly, I recommend that the charter fee for a Subordinate Lodge be increased from $30.00 to $40.00 and that the charter fee for a Rebekah Lodge be increased from $20.00 to $30.00.

DISTRICT DEPUTIES.

The District Deputy system in Illinois is not perfect, and it would require years before capable, conscientious, self-sacrificing, industrious Deputies can be secured for all of the districts. A large per cent of them have made good. One of the most important accomplishments has been the organization of districts for the purpose of holding meetings in the various lodges. Too much cannot be said for this splendid work. A strong, progressive lodge does not need a Deputy, but the Grand Lodge does need the services of our District Deputies to act as its general agents to do the work which should be done in each county.

GRAND MASTER—JOHN W. BIRNEY.

Brother Birney has given to the Order the best there was in him. Faithful, conscientious, industrious, his record is one of which we can be proud. At the close of the first year of the second century of Odd Fellowship the mark set by Grand Master John W. Birney will be hard to excel.

GRAND INSTRUCTOR—H. M. BLOOD, P.G.M.

Brother Blood has been untiring in his work for Odd Fellowship. He has taxed his mental and physical endurance to the limit. No member of the Order in Illinois stands higher in the affections of the Brothers than does Brother Blood.

CONCLUSION.

I extend most sincere thanks to my associate Grand Officers and co-workers in all departments, and particularly to General Joseph Fairhall, Department Commander of the Patriarchs Militant; Samuel E. Erickson, Grand Patriarch; Grand Scribe Sam J. Baker; President of the Rebekah Assembly, Sister Ida E. G. Sherman, and Sister Mae E. Crowell, Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly.

To the membership throughout the state I am under renewed obligations for their loyalty and assistance rendered during the past year.

Fraternally yours,

GRAND REPRESENTATIVES' REPORT.

To the Grand Lodge of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Grand Representatives to the Sovereign Grand Lodge herewith submit the following report of the proceedings of the ninety-sixth annual communication of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, held in Boston, Massachusetts, September 27th to October 1st, inclusive.

This was the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Order in Massachusetts, so that the session was of unusual interest to the Jurisdiction of Massachusetts, and especially to the Order throughout New England. The Odd Fellows of Boston and Massachusetts extended to all a royal welcome and everything was done to make this session a memorable occasion.

It has never been our pleasure to attend a session where the arrangements were so perfect and where so much was done to bring before the world the magnitude of our Order.

EXTRACTS FROM REPORTS OF GRAND OFFICERS.

GRAND SIRE.

To The Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

REPRESENTATIVES: It is with pleasure that we come to the metropolis of the great commonwealth of Massachusetts for a brief period to consider the needs of our fraternity. Three hundred years ago, a small body of hardy people landed on its then inhospitable shores. They looked forth from their little ship into mists which hid the dangers that lurked in the dark forests beyond. A continent lay before them unknown and unexplored, while behind them lay an open ocean from whose dangers they had just escaped. They had braved the perils of the one and undaunted they placed their feet upon the other, fearless to undertake the most gigantic task that ever fell to the lot of mortal man. A world may well admire their bravery and their accomplishments. But the mists that obscured their vision have lifted and today, standing upon the soil that they consecrated with dauntless endeavor, we see a continent covered from ocean to ocean, from frozen north to gulf, with the grandest results of development and discovery of which man ever dreamed. Two centuries after that hardy band had started upon their mission of labor and conquest, this Order took its place with the mighty forces to develop a continent. And as we stand at their landing place, and look back over the results which have followed from their small beginnings, we gather courage, strength, and enthusiasm for further effort to carry this fraternity to yet higher and broader fields than it has ever attained in the past. The vision of the Pilgrims was never broad enough nor deep enough to see the mighty results which were destined to follow their efforts, nor was the vision of the five immortal founders of this fraternity strong enough to see the world-wide influence which it was destined to exert. Today, with a century of history to look into and the experience which has come to us from that long period of successful development, we can see no further than those few Pilgrims or the fathers of the Order and predict what the next century shall bring for Odd Fellowship. We enter, however, upon that century with its flag flying aloft and with every confidence that its high standing shall be maintained and that it shall grow in numbers and usefulness as the days shall come. Twenty-two years ago this city extended a boundless hospitality to this Sovereign Grand Lodge. That same hospitality is again extended. We came then, as we come now, to enjoy the hospitality and to do the work that is here for us to do. Let us enter upon that work with willing hearts and active hands.

OFFICE OF THE GRAND SIRE.

To the Officers and Members of Grand and Subordinate Bodies of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

WHEREAS, By legislation enacted by The Sovereign Grand Lodge at its annual session in 1917, Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments were authorized to collect by assessments upon Subordinate Bodies, or members, and by such other means as they might see fit to adopt, a fund sufficient to pay to any Subordinate Body dues which might thereafter accrue against members thereof who might be in the military or naval services while so serving and to reimburse any Subordinate Body for accounts which under its by-laws it might be required to pay as benefits accruing while its members were in the military or naval service; and,

WHEREAS, Such legislation also provided that no member of the Order while thereafter serving in the military or naval forces should be suspended for non-payment of dues, or lose any right or privilege which he then had, with further provisions as to honors as past officers and being excused for failure to attend any meeting when such failure was due to service in the military or naval service; and,

WHEREAS, It was further provided that said legislation should remain in force and effect only to the end of the then present emergency, which should be determined by proclamation of the Grand Sire; and,

WHEREAS, The emergency referred to in said legislation and then existing no longer exists;

Now, therefore, under the power conferred on the Grand Sire by said legislation, I determine and declare that the said emergency is at an end and the provisions and requirements contained in said legislation shall cease to exist from and after the 31st day of December, 1919.

Done at the city of Amsterdam, New York, this 27th day of October, 1919.

HENRY V. BORST, Grand Sire.

Attest: JOHN B. GOODWIN, Grand Secretary.

During the past year, the Grand Sire, at the earnest request of the brethren, visited Hawaii and Australasia and presented to the Sovereign Grand Lodge a very full and complete report as to the condition of the Order in this Jurisdiction. We would be pleased to submit this in its entirety, but will simply give a few of the salient features in order to keep this report within its proper limitations.

HAWAII.

The Order in the Hawaiian Islands is confined to Honolulu, which is the only place at which the Order at present would be at all likely to exist. This city has only about 10,000 of its inhabitants from which the Order can expect membership. The Order was established in the Islands in 1846 and, at present, consists of two lodges: the one, Excelsior, which owns unincumbered real estate to the value of about $200,000, and the other, Harmony, which rents lodge rooms of the other lodge. The membership of these two lodges is about 300. There are two Rebekah lodges with a combined membership of about 200.

NEW SOUTH WALES.

The Grand Sire arrived at Sidney, New South Wales, on July 13th. In both Australia and New Zealand the age limit for receiving membership in our Order is from 16 to 45 years. There are about 40,000 Subordinate members of our Order in Australia, of whom about 8,000 are in New Zealand. The Grand Lodge of Australasia holds regular triennial sessions only. The Subordinate Lodges work in the initiatory degree, so far as their lodge business is concerned, permission to do this having been granted by the Sovereign Grand Lodge in 1884.

The trip to meet these Australasia brethren was a long one and the Grand Sire traveled some 30,000 miles and the ocean voyage going and returning required some forty-four days, most of which was through stormy seas, and was a trying ordeal for him. The Grand Sire received a wonderful reception from the brethren of this Jurisdiction, as well as from the civil officers of the countries in which he visited.

DECISIONS.

Not many of the questions proposed and decisions rendered thereon by the Grand Sire during the past year are of sufficient importance to publish. The number of decisions made was large, but most of them were covered by the provisions of the Code and existing laws, and to here set forth such questions and answers is to repeat the settled laws of the Order. I submit a few of the more important decisions made, some of them may be of interest to the fraternity.

DECISION No. 1.—Does the action of The Sovereign Grand Lodge at the 1919 annual session (Journal 1919, pages 225, 242, 254-255) authorizing Grand Bodies to “elect their officers in the manner prescribed by the Constitutions of Grand Bodies” nullify sub-section (b) of section 402, which provides that “a P. G., when away from the vicinity of his own lodge, may not cast his vote in another lodge.” This where the Grand Officers are elected by Past Grands voting in their Subordinate Lodges.

Answer.—Grand Bodies, under the amendment of 1919, may now authorize those qualified to vote for Grand Officers to cast their ballots in Subordinate Lodges or Encampments other than their own when away from the vicinity of their own lodge or encampment. The amendment allows the Grand Bodies to provide for the counting of such ballots.

DECISION No. 2.—May a Grand Lodge authorize the President and Secretary of a Rebekah Assembly to sign charters issued for Rebekah Lodges in the following form:

....., Grand Master,
....., Grand Secretary,
....., President,
....., Secretary.

Answer—Yes. The charters, however, are furnished from the Grand Secretary's office, but no charters are provided at this time, I am advised by the Grand Secretary, for the signatures of both the Grand Lodge officers and the Assembly officers. All charters should be obtained from the Grand Secretary's office.

DECISION No. 3.—Can a Grand Master compel a Rebekah Lodge to issue a withdrawal card when a member has been accepted on an official certificate according to section 525-b of the Code, or may the lodge refuse to do so according to section 87-b?

Answer.—Sections 87 and 525 of the Code do not conflict. Each is distinctive from the other. Section 87 relates generally to withdrawal cards and has reference to the desire of a member to discontinue membership in a Subordinate Lodge and yet preserve evidence of such membership and his standing in the Order (Code, section 71) and is granted by vote of the lodge. Section 525 has no reference to application for membership in another lodge upon a withdrawal card. It only applies to members who seek membership in another lodge upon either a visiting card or an official certificate. If such member is elected to membership in another lodge his home lodge must grant the withdrawal card upon receiving due notice, if he is free from all charges, arrearages for dues, and pays the required fee. It is mandatory upon the lodge to grant it upon all provisions of section 525 being complied with, and the Grand Master may compel the home lodge to grant it.

DECISION No. 4.—At the last session of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, section 841 of the Code was revised to conform with section 87 and, as the new revision does not mention the Vice-Grand, the question is asked as it is intended to include the Vice-Grand?

Answer.—No.

And does the new revision mean that the dispensation to install one of these two officers from the floor such dispensation must come from the Grand Master or may his deputy issue it?

Answer.—From the Grand Master.

DECISION No. E.—Would a by-law of a Rebekah Lodge that has been approved by its Grand Body, stating that a Noble Grand prior to announcing the result of the ballot could call for a new ballot, conflict with section 520 of the Code and Sovereign Grand Lodge Journal 5193-5245?

Answer.—It does. Section 519 imposes the duty on the Noble Grand to declare the result of the ballot and section 520 provides that errors made in the taking of the ballot may be corrected by a majority vote. No power is vested in the Noble Grand to order a new ballot except by order of a majority vote of the lodge.

DECISION No. 6.—Is a lodge compelled to pay sick benefits to a Brother serving his country in Europe, provided his family is not dependent upon him and he leaves no wife nor children and all his funeral expenses have been paid by the Government?

Answer.—No.

DECISION No. 7.—Inquiry by Grand Master. Two lodges in this Jurisdiction wish to consolidate: "A" Lodge No. 11 and "B" Lodge

No. 84, both in the same town, and take the name of "C" Lodge No. 2. There is no number "2" in the state, this lodge having consolidated with another lodge some years ago. Has the Grand Master the power to grant such permission by allowing these lodges to take on consolidation an older number than either of the numbers used by the lodges who wish to consolidate, or must they use one of the numbers of the lodges consolidated? Some members of lodges who have smaller numbers than number "11" are objecting to the latter procedure.

Answer.—The right to authorize the consolidation of Subordinate Lodges is given by The Sovereign Grand Lodge to legislation to be enacted by Grand Bodies. (Code, sections 762, 763.) The Grand Master has the power to grant permission for the consolidation of the two lodges named, with such number as he may determine not already taken by another lodge, if such power has been conferred upon him by the Grand Lodge in the Jurisdiction referred to.

DECISION No. 8.—The Constitution of a Grand Lodge provides: "29. Should a vacancy occur in the office of Deputy Grand Master, Grand Representative, Grand Warden, Grand Secretary, or Grand Treasurer, by death, resignation, suspension, or otherwise, during the recess of this Grand Lodge, such vacancy shall be filled by a qualified member to be chosen by a majority of the remaining elective officers, provided, always, that the person so chosen shall serve only until the next annual session of the Grand Lodge, but, in the event of the term in the vacant office being still unexpired, the remainder of such unexpired term shall be filled by nomination and election as is heretofore provided." "32. In the event of the death, resignation, or removal from office of the Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master shall become Grand Master until the next regular session of the Grand Lodge thereafter." A Grand Master dies. Query: Does the Deputy Grand Master become the Grand Master or the Acting Grand Master? Is the office of Deputy Grand Master vacant? Does the term until the next regular session of the Grand Lodge mean the opening of the Grand Lodge or until after the election and installation of the new officers?

Answer.—Under the terms of the Grand Lodge Constitution quoted the Deputy Grand Master becomes the Acting Grand Master and serves as such only until the next regular session of the Grand Lodge thereafter, when the office shall be filled by nomination and election, as is provided in its laws. The office of Deputy Grand Master does not become vacant thereby, unless the Deputy Grand Master is elected Grand Master to serve for the unexpired term, when the vacancy thus created must be filled as required by the law.

DECISION No. 9.—Which controls in the case of conflict in provisions, the Code or the Ritual?

Answer.—In all cases of conflict between the Code and the Ritual, the Ritual governs (see Decisions 16 and 47, pages 18, 290, 293, Journal 1911).

DECISION No. 10.—Is it legal for a Subordinate Lodge to admit a man over fifty years of age as a non-beneficial member by initiation, he never having been a member of the Order?

Answer.—Yes, if your Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment shall have so provided by law.

DECISION No. 11.—It is permissible for a Subordinate Lodge to admit to membership by reinstatement on a dismissal certificate or a defunct certificate a Brother who had previously been suspended for non-payment of dues or whose lodge has ceased to work or who had not retained membership in the Order for five years or more?

Your Committee on the Judiciary, to whom were referred the decisions of the Grand Sire, beg to report that we have given careful consideration to Decision No. 11.

We find that under Section 584 of the General Code of Laws a member suspended for N. P. D. shall have the right to apply for reinstatement to the lodge from which he was suspended.

Under Section 169 of the Code the holder of a dismissal certificate desiring to regain membership in a Subordinate Body must apply for membership, accompanying his application by such dismissal certificate and otherwise complying with the provisions of the law governing the lodge to which application is made.

We, therefore, recommend that the answer to the question propounded be in the negative and offer the following:

Resolved, That "No" be substituted for the Grand Sire's decision to said question.

DECISION No. 12.—May a withdrawal card issued by a lodge in Amsterdam, Holland, be presented and the applicant admitted to a lodge in this country?

Answer.—Such card may be accepted and the applicant admitted upon complying with the laws of the Jurisdiction relating to the admission to membership.

DECISION No. 13.—Has the proclamation issued by Grand Sire Kuykendall on April 12th, 1909, calling for the expulsion of Orientals from the I. O. O. F. been cancelled or altered in any way or is it still in force?

Answer.—It has not been cancelled or altered in any way and is still in force. The proclamation referred to, however, did not call for the expulsion of any designated class of persons but referred specifically to those persons who violated the provisions of the law of the Order

DECISION No. 14.—Is it illegal for a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows to belong to the Oriental Order of Humility and Perfection?

Answer.—No facts are set forth as to how or in what manner a member acquires membership in the aforementioned Order or what is requisite to gain membership therein. If any of the provisions of the law of this Order contained in its Legislation of 1883, Journal pages 9361-9363, are violated, then such act would be illegal, otherwise it would not be.

DECISION No. 15.—Should an Odd Fellow be prosecuted for joining the Oriental Order of Humility and Perfection?

Answer.—Any member who violates the laws of the Order is subject to punishment. None of the facts are set forth in the question so that it is not possible to determine whether an offense has been committed or not.

DECISION No. 16.—Several lodges maintain club rooms in which the members conduct friendly card games. Outsiders join in this pastime. The playing is indulged in on Sunday and has thereby caused comment and criticism by outsiders and has led to dissention among the members. Should this practice in these club rooms be allowed?

Answer.—No. The playing of games in the ante-rooms or club rooms of the Order should not be indulged in or allowed on Sunday. The members of the Order in the case mentioned should be advised accordingly, and if they thereafter continue playing in the rooms on Sunday they will be guilty of conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow and subject to punishment accordingly. The rooms under control of the lodge should be maintained in keeping with the high standing of the Order.

DECISION No. 17.—A lodge duly elected and installed a Brother as Vice-Grand. During his term, while attending each session of his lodge, he was inducted into the military service of the U. S. A. and served until the close of the war. Said lodge, immediately upon the Brother's induction into service, declared his office vacated, elected and installed another Brother as Vice-Grand. This latter Brother was thereafter elected and installed as Noble Grand, certified to the Grand Lodge as a Past Grand, and received the Past Grand and Grand Lodge degrees at the 1919 session.

Did the lodge have the right to elect and install the second Brother as Vice-Grand and Noble Grand and confer upon him the honors of the office of Noble Grand, or should they have left the offices unfilled by election and allowed the Brother who went into the service to keep the chair of Noble Grand upon his return and thereby become entitled to the honors instead of the second Brother?

What right or remedy has the brother who entered the service? Is it possible for him to receive the honors of the office of Noble Grand, be certified as Past Grand to the Grand Lodge, and have conferred upon him the Grand Lodge degrees?

Answer.—Assume that the Vice-Grand was in good standing at the time he entered the army, he continued in good standing and was entitled to all the honors and emoluments which followed service for a full term as Vice-Grand, provided he remained in the army during such period. He is not entitled to the honors of Noble Grand unless he had been elected to that office and was serving therein at the time he entered the army, when the same provisions would follow as suggested if he was serving as Vice-Grand.

The lodge had no right to declare the office of Vice-Grand vacant and elect a Brother in place of the Brother elected to that office and serving in the army as before stated. The records of the lodge should show that the Brother in the military service was excused from further attendance and another Brother, who was entitled to be elected to the position of Vice-Grand, should have performed the duties of that office during the absence of the Vice-Grand in the service. The Brother, however, who was elected Vice-Grand and thereafter, as I assume from the inquiry, elected Noble Grand, would be entitled to the honors of the latter office if he complied with the provisions of the law of the Jurisdiction to entitle him to those honors.

DECISION No. 18.—Code Section 785, General Laws of the I. O. O. F., reads: "Encampments. All Subordinate Encampments shall hold their meetings semi-monthly, except, where yearly terms have been provided. Grand Encampments may authorize meetings to be held monthly instead of semi-monthly."

STATEMENT.—"A" claims that, in accordance with the above section, Subordinate Encampments can hold regular meetings semi-monthly.

"B" claims that, under said section, Subordinate Encampments must hold regular meetings at least semi-monthly but can hold regular meetings each week if provided by local by-laws.

Answer.—Encampments must hold sessions semi-monthly except in cases where local law authorizes sessions to be held monthly. Section 765 of the Code prescribes that regular terms of Subordinates shall be six months but that Grand Bodies may make the terms one year instead. The Sovereign Grand Lodge, 1899, pages 33, 365-394, says the term of a Subordinate Encampment must be either six months or one year as the Grand Encampment may determine. The purpose of the law is to make twelve meetings a regular term. Encampments therefore may not meet in regular session weekly. "A" is therefore correct. Grand Bodies may authorize Encampments to hold monthly meetings.

DECISION No. 19.—The Grand Secretaries and Grand Scribes are custodians of the diagrams and secret work and held responsible for the same. Who should appoint their assistants during the annual session of Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments, assuming the Grand Secretaries and Grand Scribes are too busy to give instructions during the sessions?

Answer.—In the absence of any provision in your Grand Lodge constitution or your Grand Encampment constitution the Grand Secretary and Grand Scribe of each of these bodies respectively should appoint their assistants at the meetings of the Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments to take charge of the secret work during those sessions, as they are charged each with the responsibility of preserving the secrecy of such work.

NEW LEGISLATION.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE CONTROL AND DISTRIBUTION OF EMERGENCY CONTRIBUTIONS.

Be it enacted by The Sovereign Grand Lodge:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any Grand Master, Grand Patriarch, Department Commander, President of a Rebekah Assembly, Grand or Subordinate Lodge or Encampment, Rebekah Lodge or Rebekah Assembly, Department Council or Canton, or any officer or member of any of said bodies, or any committee or representative thereof, to solicit aid or relief for any purpose or in any manner, either by direct request for funds, sale of tickets, or by any scheme whatever, from the lodges, encampments, Rebekah Lodges, or cantons, or members of another Jurisdiction, without having first obtained the written approval of the Grand Sire and the written consent of the Grand Master of such other Jurisdiction if such appeal is to be made to the Subordinate or Rebekah Lodges or members thereof, or of the Grand Patriarch if such Lodges or members thereof, or of the Grand Patriarch if such appeal is to be made to encampments, or the members thereof, or of the Department Commander if such appeal is to be made to Cantons, or the members thereof. Such consent can only be obtained upon proper request therefor duly made by the Grand Master or Grand Patriarch, or Department Commander of the Jurisdiction desiring to solicit.

Section 2. Any Lodge, Encampment, Rebekah Lodge, or Canton, which shall desire to ask pecuniary aid in consequence of loss by fire, public calamity, or for any other cause, shall first make application to the Grand Body having jurisdiction over it, and, if it shall not be in the power of such Grand Body to render the aid required, such Grand Body may, with the written approval of the Grand Sire and subject to the provisions, conditions, and limitations of this act, ask the assistance of other Grand Bodies of the same branch of the Order through the executive Grand Officers of such Grand Bodies, who shall have power to issue circulars to their Subordinates stating the circumstances and recommending that contributions be made.

Section 3. No appeal shall be issued which does not clearly and plainly set forth the purposes thereof, and in approving any appeal for aid or assistance the Grand Sire may impose such conditions, restrictions, and limitations as to the character of the appeal, the extent and method of its circulation, the collection, remittance, accounting for and handling of all funds and properties, including the distribution thereof, as he shall deem proper, necessary, and required.

Section 4. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed to prevent the Grand Sire in the event of such general calamity or disaster from issuing on his own initiative, subject to the conditions, rules, and limitations of this act, a general appeal to the Order.

Section 5. In the event that aid, relief, or assistance of a financial or material nature is sought by reason of any widespread or general disaster, or calamity, caused by fire, flood, or otherwise, the Grand Sire in approving such appeal shall include in such appeal a direction that all funds, properties, supplies, and aid contributed in response thereto shall be paid to and forwarded to the Grand Treasurer of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, unless the General Relief Committee hereinafter named shall direct the same to be otherwise forwarded.

Section 6. The elective officers for the time being of the Sovereign Grand Lodge shall be and they are hereby constituted a Standing Committee of this Body to be known as "The General Relief Committee," which committee shall be subject to the general supervision of this Body and, under the provisions of this act, receive, have charge of, invest, care for, disburse and distribute all funds and properties contributed and received, under any appeal, however issued, or otherwise accumulated or received for the general purposes of this act. The Grand Secretary and the Grand Treasurer shall, ex officio, be the secretary and treasurer of this committee.

Section 7. Such General Relief Committee, or the Grand Sire, with the approval thereof, may, in writing, designate and appoint such agents and representatives, to aid in the work of collecting and distributing such funds and properties, as may be necessary and proper. Such agents and representatives shall make full reports showing in detail the monies and properties received by them, when, and for what purpose it was disbursed or distributed. Such agents and representatives shall serve without compensation except that they may be reimbursed for such traveling, clerical, and necessary expenses as the committee shall in writing approve.

Grand Representative,
Chicago.

Section 8. Except as set forth in the preceding section, any and all monies and properties including contributions for other than local purposes from the General Relief Fund, authorized under Section 15, contributed in response to any appeal, by whomever issued, shall be paid and forwarded to the Grand Treasurer of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. Any monies or properties, which shall be paid or forwarded to any other person, or to any committee, shall be deemed paid to, and to be accounted for to, the said Grand Treasurer and said General Relief Committee.

Section 9. All monies and properties received shall be kept separate and apart from other funds, and to be known as The General Relief Fund.

Section 10. The fund and properties so contributed shall be used for the relief of temporary distress and the immediate needs of unfortunate members of the Fraternity, their widows and dependents. Except for such temporary relief, no portion of such fund shall be used for the purpose of reimbursing those who have lost property, time, or employment, or who have otherwise been injured in their estate, unless said Committee shall in writing approve such use and expenditure, and a record of such approval shall be entered upon the records of said Committee.

Section 11. Said General Relief Committee shall keep proper books of record, which books shall show all the funds and transactions of said committee, and shall also keep proper books of account, which books shall show in detail the receipts and expenditures of funds and properties coming under the supervision and control of such Committee.

Section 12. Said General Relief Committee shall disburse such funds only upon proper vouchers and written receipts showing details and items of expenditure and shall keep and preserve the same, and the books and accounts of said committee shall be audited by the Finance Committee of The Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Section 13. Said General Relief Committee shall at each annual session of The Sovereign Grand Lodge submit a statement of said funds and what if any monies or properties have been received or disbursed by it since the submission of the last former statement. Such statement shall include in detail all items of expenditure or disbursement, together with the names of the recipients thereof, except the names of Brothers and Sisters who have received temporary aid for temporary needs, and such report shall be printed in full in the Journal of The Sovereign Grand Lodge for the session at which such report is submitted. The Committee shall also prepare and file in the office of the Grand Secretary, to be there permanently preserved as a part of the records of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, a full, detailed, and complete report of each and every expenditure made from such General Relief Fund and property, including therein the names of all persons to whom any money or property was paid, or contribution of any kind made, for any and every purpose whatever, including the date when, the purposes for which such payment or contribution was made, and the amount so paid or contributed, which said statement shall be subject to the inspection of the Finance Committee, and any member of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, and to such other members of the Order as the Grand Sire shall in writing approve. The Sovereign Grand Lodge shall have the power to order such last named detailed and full report to be published.

Section 14. Any contribution of monies or properties not used or expended shall be kept and retained in such General Relief Fund, to be held for future and similar emergencies and to be expended for the general purposes for which such fund was created, and all appeals for funds or aid shall state that any unexpended balance will be retained and used for the purposes in this act named.

Section 15. Subordinate Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments are hereby empowered to create by appropriate legislation and by taxation, or otherwise, a General Relief Fund to be held by such Subordinate Grand Bodies and to be disbursed under such regulations as such Subordinate Bodies may prescribe, for the temporary relief, as herein defined, of the members of the Order who may suffer from a local or general calamity. Contributions from such fund may be made to the Relief Fund of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, or in answer to any appeal issued in lieu of an appeal to the general membership of such Subordinate Jurisdiction.

Section 16. In the event of a general calamity or periods of widespread distress, and when it shall appear to be necessary, the General Relief Committee of The Sovereign Grand Lodge is empowered by unanimous vote of such committee, which shall appear of record, to use said funds to relieve immediate distress and suffering without confining the beneficiaries to members of this Order, and the Grand Sire in vacation, and by the unanimous consent of said Committee, which said consent shall be in writing and filed with the Grand Secretary, and become a part of the records of said Committee and of the records of this Body, is authorized to appeal, subject to the general provisions of this act, for funds for the purposes set forth in this section, stating clearly in such appeal the purposes thereof.

Section 17. The law as set forth in Chapter 9, Sections 816 and 817 of the "Code of General Laws," and all the provisions of existing law contrary to the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

A BILL TO AMEND SECTION 55 OF THE CODE OF GENERAL
LAWS OF THE I. O. O. F.

Be it enacted by The Sovereign Grand Lodge: That Section 55 of the Code of General Laws of the I. O. O. F. be amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 55. FUNERAL EXPENSE. Subordinate Bodies may be required, whenever a Brother who is in good standing and entitled to weekly sick benuefits, as hereinbefore provided, shall die and his funeral expenses shall be paid either out of the estate of the deceased Brother or by a relative or friend, or other person, to provide and pay a funeral expense, the amount of which may be fixed by the Grand Body having jurisdiction by general law, or, in the absence of such a law, by Subordinate Bodies by by-law, to the estate of the deceased or to the person or persons who shall incur such expense. But nothing herein shall be construed to require the payment of a funeral expense to any corporation, society, or organization of which the deceased was a member, which shall have paid the funeral expenses and shall have incurred the same by reason of any obligation it owed to the deceased by virtue of his membership in such organization, nor shall any obligation rest upon a Subordinate Body to pay a funeral expense to the Government, where the deceased Brother was buried at Government expense.

To The Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on Legislation, to whom was referred Bill No. 11, page 45, of the daily Journal, beg leave to report that we have given the same careful consideration, and offer in lieu thereof the following substitute and respectfully recommend that the substitute Bill be placed on its passage.

A BILL TO AMEND SECTION 785 OF THE CODE OF LAWS,
S. G. L., I. O. O. F.

Be it enacted by The Sovereign Grand Lodge: That Section 785 of the Code of Laws of The Sovereign Grand Lodge be amended by inserting the words "weekly or" between the word "meetings" and the word "semi-monthly" in the second line, and by striking out the words "instead of semi-monthly" in the last line, so that when amended the section shall read as follows:

Sec. 785. ENCAMPMENTS. All Subordinate Encampments shall hold their meetings weekly or semi-monthly, except, where yearly terms have been provided, Grand Encampments may authorize meetings to be held monthly.

PAST GRAND SIRE EDWIN STAPLETON CONWAY.

Memorial exercises were held in honor of Past Grand Sire Conway, whose passing away occurred since the last session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. Many beautiful tributes were paid to him as an Odd Fellow and as a citizen. The addresses will be published in connection with the proceedings of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. The testimonial prepared by Past Grand Sire Campbell was passed by a rising vote and we herewith submit the memorial prepared by the committee.

To The Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

The Committee on Memorial of Past Grand Sire Conway herewith submit the following testimonial prepared by our Senior Past Grand Sire, Brother Campbell:

In the passing of Brother Edwin Stapleton Conway, Odd Fellowship lost a strong man, a man of resolute will, firm of purpose, ever clearly perceiving the path of duty, and following it with a steadfast aim, a man well fitted to be the leader and guide of a great society.

Brother Conway was a self-made man, in so far as any man can be self-made. He was born in Ontario near Toronto, March 21, 1850. The family moved to Minnesota while he was a child and settled on a farm. The Civil War called his father to the front, and young Edwin felt that he had to trust to his own resources. Anxious to obtain the best education possible, he worked his way through school and college, maintaining himself meanwhile by utilizing his spare hours in labor of any kind that came to hand.

Graduating from the Wesleyan Seminary at Eau Claire, Wisconsin, at the age of twenty-one, he commenced business by selling organs for the Kimball Piano Company, Chicago. His success in this work attracted the attention of Mr. Kimball, who gave him a position in the head office. His ability and energy assured his advancement; he became a partner in the company, its general manager, and finally the head of the corporation and one of Chicago's wealthy business men.

His career in Odd Fellowship was like his career in business—not meteoric, but steadily advancing. At the age of twenty-one he was initiated into Lake City Lodge, Minnesota. On removing to Chicago he affiliated with the Order there and became a member of all its different branches. In due time his lodge sent him to the Grand Lodge, where he served as Representative for several years. He was elected Grand Warden in 1890, Grand Master in 1892, and Representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge in 1893—his first session being the year following. In this body he at once took a prominent place, being recognized as a man of keen perception and business ability. As chairman of the Finance Committee, he guided the business affairs of the Sovereign Grand Lodge with a steady hand, increasing its funds by strict economy and wise administration.

In 1906 he became Grand Sire. His administration was conservative and eminently useful. He presided over the body with dignity, and guided its deliberations with the skill of an old parliamentarian. His rulings were sound and promptly made. His treatment of the members was frank and courteous. As a Grand Representative, he made no pretensions to oratory; but during his service as Grand Sire he showed a happy facility in making pithy and epigrammatic addresses which deserve preservation as classics in the literature of Odd Fellowship. Everywhere he preached practical Odd Fellowship; and, above all, he evolved and stimulated the spirit of service, urging upon all the faithful performance of duty to God, to country, and to humanity. And what he taught he practiced, serving with all his energy in whatever sphere of life he moved.

He was no idler, but worked while his strength lasted, until the end came, and he ceased from his labors at his home in Chicago, November 4, 1919. Many will miss his genial smile, his pleasant voice; but the memory of his loving words and kindly deeds will last for many a year.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES.

Your Representatives, at the request of the German and Bohemian brethren of Chicago, offered a bill to modify Section 373-A of the Code of General Laws. The modification sought was to permit foreign language lodges, which had been working in the foreign language for a period of twenty-five years prior to this date, to give such parts of their ritualistic work in the language in which the lodge was instituted when said lodge has no member or members who are qualified to give such ritualistic parts in the English language. The Committee on Legislation took the view that the question had been definitely settled at the Session of 1919, and recommended that the bill be not placed upon its passage.

Some French lodges of Quebec petitioned for permission to use their language. The petition was referred to the Grand Sire.

GRAND SIRE'S COMPENSATION.

The Representatives of Illinois, believing that the money appropriated for the expenses of the Grand Sire was not adequate, offered a bill fixing the amount at $5,000. The Finance Committee reported that inasmuch as the Finance Committee have agreed that the sum of $5,000 should be appropriated for the administration of the office of Grand Sire it would not be necessary to place this bill. The object and purposes of your Representatives were fully covered by including this amount in the annual budget.

DOCTOR J. A. LUCAS.

It will be very gratifying to the Order in this Jurisdiction to know that our good Brother, Past Grand Master J. A. Lucas, was reappointed by the present Grand Sire as Grand Chaplain for the next two years. Our Brother has rendered such efficient service in this position that we trust that he will continue to be appointed throughout the rest of his years.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS.

The Committee on International Relations respectfully reports that they have carefully considered all matters referred to them and beg leave to submit the following report:

Your Committee on International Relations, to whom were referred matters set forth in the report of the Grand Sire, the report of the Grand Secretary, communications from several foreign Jurisdictions, beg to report that they have carefully considered the same and recommend the following in regard thereto:

1. As to communication dated Aug. 18, 1920, from the District Deputy Grand Sire for the Philippine Islands, which details the financial losses that have come to members of the Order who in pure fraternal spirit have aided in relieving financial distress among those actually connected with the Order or claiming to be, as also in burying deceased Odd Fellows, there being in some cases no reimbursement, we heartily commend the spirit that prompted the assistance but we are forced to say in all kindness that our Brothers in the Islands are protected from impositions and unfair dealings in the same way and to the same extent as are all Odd Fellows and the different branches of the Order, and that they must use their best judgment in each and every case. The communication does not contain any recommendation and we feel that we can only suggest a more careful investigation of each case.

2. As to the communication from the Grand Encampment of Michigan containing resolutions urging this Grand Body to become more deeply interested in our Quasi-Independent Jurisdictions and to lend every effort to the increase of their membership, we are glad to report the same meets with our approval, as will be shown by the general tenor of this report.

3. As to the communication from Dr. Charles Weil, of Buffalo, New York, in reference to the deferring of the application of the law compelling work in the lodges to be done in the English language, we respectfully submit that this matter is already very properly in the hands of the Committee on Legislation.

4. As to that part of the Report of the Grand Sire appearing on pages 13-17, setting forth the correspondence with Grand Master Weiss, of Germany, Deputy Grand Sire Lanz, of Switzerland, and others, in regard to the release and condition of German and Austrian prisoners now in the prison camps of the Allies, as also that part of the Report of the Grand Sire appearing on page 17, relating to the appeal of Grand Master du Scheppe, of Holland, in behalf of the Austrians, your Committee recommends the approval and endorsement of the position taken by the Grand Sire.

5. As to that part of the Report of the Grand Sire appearing on page 18, relating to the position of this Grand Body as the head of the Order, and the source from which should come the Ritual, the Password, and such other things as are essential to the uniformity in the Work of the Order, your Committee recommends the approval and endorsement of the position taken by the Grand Sire.

6. As to that part of the report of the Grand Sire appearing on page 30, referring to his action in encouraging the formation of a Grand Lodge in the kingdom of Norway, your Committee recommends the approval and endorsement of the action of the Grand Sire.

7. Your Committee are of the opinion that beyond all question the time has arrived for this Grand Body to immediately give its special attention to our Foreign Jurisdictions. Years ago our Order was declared to be world-wide in its conception and purposes and this we clearly believe. Our principles are fundamental, and an essential part of the warp and woof of every life, necessary to the rich and the poor, the strong and the weak, and no civilized nation should be beyond their influence and reach.

The seed has been well sown in many countries foreign to North America, but not cultivated to the fullest possible extent by this Grand Body. One not blind can easily see the great opportunities before us and it would be nothing short of a calamity to fail to move hastily to seize them.

Our Grand Sire has seen these opportunities and we congratulate him upon his action in preparing the way for this Grand Body to now move forcefully and with great judgment. Our principles are so fundamental, so necessary and helpful to all mankind that no civilized human being should be able to say he has not had an opportunity to embrace them.

With these views and sentiments controlling them, your Committee begs leave to submit some definite recommendations which they believe will extend our activities and draw closer to the Grand Body those Quasi-Independent Foreign Jurisdictions and at the same time fire them with new zeal to multiply their membership. These recommendations are as follows:

First—That this Grand Body should, at the earliest possible moment, introduce a schedule of official visitations, at close periods, to our Quasi-Independent Jurisdictions, so that by personal touch the latter may be deeply impressed with the sincerity of our fraternal love and our profound desire that they shall feel that they are indeed an essential part of our great Order, which needs their co-operation and best thought on all matters relating to its life and progress.

Second—That our Foreign Jurisdictions should be more fully informed about the business and activities of this Grand Body and the Subordinate branches thereof than is briefly set forth in formal communications to them. To those who are in attendance at these sessions or enjoy a close association with those who do attend, these formal reports are full of interest and help and furnish inspiration to the Subordinate Bodies. On the other hand, Brothers in the Foreign Jurisdictions get none of this inspiration, for their communications come to them as cold law, directions and orders, with the making of which they have had nothing to do. Your Committee recommends that special communications, not of great length, be prepared under the direction of the Grand Sire, giving some of the details of our Annual Session and other matters of interest arising from time to time in the different branches of our Order in the several Jurisdictions. This will serve to create new ideas and thoughts in the minds of our Foreign brethren and assist them greatly in methods adopted to increase their membership. Of course such a newsy communication would not do away with our own formal reports, etc.

Third—That this Grand Body should immediately do something visible and practical to show our interest in and love for our Foreign brethren in the midst of their distress brought on by the World War. If there is distress it is our clear duty to do our utmost to extend definite relief. Such an attitude on the part of this Grand Body will inspire our Foreign brethren with new love and surely create new life and thus draw us closer. At the same time it will impress the world at large with the truth that rivers, lakes, bays, and oceans form no barriers to the practice and application of our principles. We have now a wonderful opportunity to serve and render real help.

In this connection your Committee has inquired into the condition that is said to prevail among our brethren in the countries of Continental Europe and perhaps in other of our Quasi-Independent Jurisdictions. According to our best information, there is a great scarcity of food and other necessities in some of those countries and actual suffering among our brethren, their wives and children, and among the widows and orphans of our deceased members. It is the opinion of your Committee that the General Relief Committee provided by Article 6 of the Act passed by this Sovereign Body at this session entitled "An Act Relative to the Control and Distribution of Emergency Contributions" proceed immediately to gather reliable data as to the actual condition existing among our brethren in those countries and if an emergency is found to exist that steps be taken to provide and disburse practical relief.

Fourth—That the Grand Sire ascertain, at the earliest possible moment, if our Foreign Language Rituals might be of assistance and benefit to the lodges of Europe and in the event that he should determine, after investigation, that these Rituals could be so utilized, then that the Grand Secretary of the Grand Body, upon the recommendation of its Grand Sire, be authorized to promise to these lodges, free of cost, such Rituals from the present stock on hand.

Signed by the Committee.

SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE BUILDING.

Report No. 90. By Deputy Grand Sire Oliver, of Ontario, from the Special Committee on Sovereign Grand Lodge Building, which was considered and adopted:

Your commission, consisting of the Grand Sire, Deputy Grand Sire, Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer, and the Chairman of the Committee on Finance, created by Report 40, page 216, Journal of 1919, for the purpose of considering plans for a building for The Sovereign Grand Lodge, have given the matter careful consideration, and reached the unanimous conclusion that the building should be erected in Baltimore, Maryland.

Your commission are also of the unanimous opinion that the building, when erected, should be so designed and arranged as to meet the office needs of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, with sufficient vault space to care for the invaluable records of this body that have already accumulated, with surplus space for the records for many years to come.

We would also recommend that the building be of sufficient size and arrangement to provide an auditorium furnished with stationary desks, in which The Sovereign Grand Lodge could meet at their pleasure, and that the building be provided with sufficient committee rooms to accommodate the committees of this body, also ample stock and shipping rooms.

Individual members of this commission have looked at and obtained the price on several sites in Baltimore, which at the time of their investigation were splendidly located and could have been purchased at very reasonable prices.

As to the means to be adopted for raising the funds for the proposed building, your commission feel that they are not in a position to submit a plan until The Sovereign Grand Lodge has decided on the general character of the building to be erected.

Your commission are of the opinion that the property now owned by The Sovereign Grand Lodge in Baltimore could be sold at from forty-five to fifty thousand dollars, and that a new and much more desirable site could be purchased from the proceeds.

We would, therefore, recommend that the committee be authorized to secure an option, or purchase outright a site in Baltimore for the purpose of building, and the Commission be continued.

TUBERCULOSIS.

We, your special Committee on Odd Fellows' Home for the Treatment of Tuberculosis, have had the same under consideration and beg to report as follows:

We have endeavored to make a thorough investigation of this matter, gathering all the statistics it was possible to obtain, and visiting several institutions that are now established for the treatment of tuberculosis. It is the opinion of your Committee that a home or sanitarium with a capacity of five hundred members, fully equipped and ready for operation, would cost one million five hundred thousand dollars.

The research of your Committee in making this investigation reveals the following:

There are one million active cases and approximately one million inactive cases of tuberculosis in the United States today. There are one hundred and fifty thousand persons who die annually from tuberculosis—four hundred every day. These inactive cases might be transformed into active cases at any time under favorable conditions. The research of your Committee further revealed, when the United States was called into the World War, more than a hundred thousand of the fine young men of our land, who thought they were physically sound and able for military service, were passed by the local draft boards and, upon a more rigid examination by the physicians of the training camp, were rejected because they had tuberculosis. The greatest toll which tuberculosis takes is between the ages of 18 and 45 years. More people die from tuberculosis than any other one disease. One-tenth of all the deaths in the United States are from tuberculosis. While there were approximately 70,000 soldiers that were killed in active service during the World War, there were 150,000 deaths from tuberculosis during the same period. The financial loss in the United States annually from tuberculosis is $500,000,000 and yet all authorities claim that tuberculosis is curable if taken in its incipient stage.

The statistics given above by your Committee are from the United States alone, but reliable information gives the rate in Canada and the United States as being practically the same.

Your Committee is of the opinion that under our present law this Sovereign Grand Lodge has no authority to make a special assessment on the Subordinate Lodges. We, therefore, cannot make any recommendation for a national or international home or sanitarium for the treatment of tuberculosis, but your Committee cannot overlook the great power and influence that the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, under the Jurisdiction of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, could have in the education against this dreaded disease as well as the possible elimination of it in years to come.

Your Committee therefore recommends that the incoming Grand Sire issue a special letter to all Grand Jurisdictions, calling upon them through their Grand and Subordinate Lodges to enter this fight against the great white plague, and recommending to them that as soon as practicable, without any great additional burden upon them, they might raise a fund in their own Grand Jurisdiction for the care of the membership therein.

Your Committee would further recommend that the Grand Sire incorporate in this special letter a provision calling upon the membership in their individual capacity to co-operate with the 1000 state and private agencies that are now organized in the United States and all agencies organized in any other country which have for their purpose the fight on tuberculosis.

Your Committee find in their research that the appropriations made by our national government as well as our state governments for the treatment and prevention of tuberculosis are far below what is necessary to carry on this great work, and we feel that this Order with its power and influence financially and numerically throughout the world can render no greater service to humanity in relieving the sick and distressed than to be an active fighter against the great white plague.

Fraternally submitted,

W. W. GORDON,
W. W. MILLAN,
C. D. RINEHART,

C. S. EMERSON,
FRANK MARTIN,

Committee.

DEGREE WORK.

During the week degrees in all branches of the Order were conferred throughout the city of Boston. We had the pleasure of witnessing the conferring of the first degree, given by Caleb Rrand Lodge No. 197, I. O. O. F., of Somerville, Massachusetts, under Past Grand Master Doctor George L. Marshall, director. This degree was conferred in the National Theater before an audience of 3,500. The scenic work was under the direction of Brother Arthur Story. Much of the success of this degree is due to the great interest Brother Story has taken in reproducing scenes that are thoroughly characteristic of the time and place. We have never seen this degree produced on such a magnificent scale as it was on this occasion. The costumes were beautiful and the rendition of each particular part was done in a splendid manner. If any of the brethren should ever have an opportunity of witnessing the conferring of this degree, it will well repay them to do so.

PARADE.

On Wednesday afternoon a parade was held which was participated in by almost 50,000 Brothers and Sisters. The newspapers of Boston said that it was one of the greatest parades ever held in that city. It required from 1 p. m. until 5:50 to pass the reviewing stand. Ninety-nine bands participated. Patriarchs Militant had a large representation not only from Massachusetts but from the Jurisdictions adjacent thereto. The Order stands exceptionally high in Massachusetts and we feel that the Brothers and Sisters of that Jurisdiction did so much for the members of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and visiting Brethren and Sisters that in order to adequately express our appreciation of their efforts we herewith submit in full the report of the Special Committee on Courtesies.

Your Special Committee on Courtesies beg to submit the following Report:

Whereas, For a too brief period of time, we have enjoyed the exceptional privilege of holding a session of this Sovereign Grand Lodge within the confines of the grand old State of Massachusetts and the historic city of Boston, and it was a fitting and appropriate choice that was made when this Body decided to meet here at this time. Three centuries have passed since the heroic Pilgrims landed upon the verdant shore of Plymouth, but those three centuries are pregnant with wonderful achievement and the period of their lives forms the beginning of a momentous era that steadily grew out of the noble and virile spirit of those sterling men and women who first trod our land in search of a universal freedom. The eventful careers of this great people constitute perhaps the most important events in human progress that have ever been chronicled.

Bright jewels of the mine?
The wealth of seas, the spoils of war?—
They sought a faith’s pure shrine.
Ay, call it holy ground,
The soil where first they trod,
They have left unstained what there they found,
Freedom to worship God.”

Whereas, within one and one-half centuries after that time and in defense of undying principles, the stalwart sons of these remarkable sires valiantly fought the good fight which makes the history of America possible. And that same history has prepared for them an indestructible statue, not made with stone, but found in a reverent memory in the minds and hearts of liberty-loving people in every part of the world.

Whereas, This year, which marks the close of the first century of Odd Fellowship in Massachusetts, shows statistically the imposing results of the intensive efforts of three generations of Odd Fellows in this Jurisdiction. By the promotion of the great principles of our Order, the efforts of these earnest Brethren have builded upon a solid foundation here a structure that may ever be used to promulgate the living principle of Brotherhood. It is, indeed, a signal privilege that each of us enjoys at this time, that we may join our Massachusetts Brethren and Sisters in these proud centennials.

Whereas, Through the thoughtful consideration of the Committee of Arrangements, we have been enabled to view, with that intense interest born of many years of anticipation, the hallowed ground upon which was laid the eternal cornerstone of Liberty and Democracy.

Whereas, The state and city officials received us with most commendable courtesy and solicitous interest.

Whereas, We have been the fortunate recipients of the tender attention and unbounded hospitality of the Brothers and Sisters of Boston and Massachusetts; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Sovereign Grand Lodge express its gratitude

First—To the officers and members of the Grand Lodge, the Grand Encampment, the Rebekah Assembly, and Department Council, Patriarchs Militant, of the Jurisdiction of Massachusetts, for their magnanimous action in tendering to us the enjoyable scenic excursion to Plymouth on Saturday; for the interesting automobile tour to the scene of the memorable battlefields of Lexington and Concord; for the pleasing entertainment and brilliant ball of Wednesday; for the excellent and entertaining theater party of Thursday and the gorgeous display of fireworks.

Second—To Hon. Calvin Coolidge, Governor of Massachusetts, for his capable and sincere address of welcome and further for his generous act in providing a grandstand in which our Past Grand Representatives, Grand Secretaries' Association, and members of the fraternal press were accommodated.

Third—To His Honor, Brother Andrew J. Peters, Mayor of Boston, who, on behalf of the city, donated for our use the steamer "Rose Standish," on which we sailed to Plymouth; for the grandstand from which the Grand Officers and Grand Representatives reviewed the parade, and for the exquisite and unique floral displays in the city parks. And to the police force of Boston we desire to extend our thanks for their uniform kindness and consideration at all times.

Fourth—To Dr. Alexander Mann, Rector of Trinity Church, for his masterly sermon on Sunday; to Mr. John E. Mitchell, the organist, whose organ recital was much appreciated; and to the choir for their delightful vocal selections.

Fifth—To Mayflower Lodge, No. 54; Sagamore Encampment, No. 45, and Mary Allerton Rebekah Lodge, No. 37, of Plymouth, for their elaborate entertainment of this body, while in their city.

Sixth—To Caleb Rand Lodge, No. 107, of Somerville, for its grand performance in the exemplification of the first degree; to Manet Encampment, No. 75, of Quincy, for its unusual and highly instructive rendition of the work in the Golden Rule degree; to the Rebekah degree team, selected from thirty-two lodges of Massachusetts, for the beautiful and highly-finished work of the Rebekah degree. These degrees were all conferred in the National Theater and the magnitude and impressive manner in which they were presented constitute unmistakable evidence of much thought and many hours of labor.

Seventh—To the National Shawmut Bank for its kindness to Grand Treasurer Cox and to us.

Eighth—To the publishers of the "Boston Transcript" for gratuitously providing us with daily newspapers from all parts of the United States and Canada, and to the press of Boston generally for their hearty co-operation.

Ninth—To General W. C. Gurney and the two thousand Chevaliers under his command, whose brilliant uniforms gave the parade such imposing splendor, and to the forty thousand Odd Fellows and Rebekahs whose presence contributed to make this a parade of undoubted the greatest magnitude in America's fraternal history.

Tenth—To George Dolloff, P.G.M., whose efforts were supported loyally by these of the seventy-five Brothers and Sisters of the General Committee of Arrangements, and to them, severally we extend our heartfelt thanks for exhibition of that noble spirit which has made us the objects of their fraternal care. When we leave them, we do so with the assurance that we will carry to our homes a cherished recollection of many hours of pleasure made possible to us through the enthusiastic efforts of genuine and sincere Odd Fellows and Rebekahs.

The special committee on bonding of the officers appointed by the Grand Sire under authority of Report No. 55, page 230—1919 Journal—presented but majority and minority reports, and action on the same was deferred until the session of 1921.

Illinois once more stood at the head of all Jurisdictions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in having made the largest net increase of membership, namely, 8682.

It stood second in the largest gain in the Rebekah Branch and third as to the Encampment Branch.

In the matter of purchasing of Honorable Veteran Jewels, Illinois far surpassed all other Jurisdictions, having purchased 391 during the past year, and it stood second as to purchasing of Veteran Jewels, having purchased 5737. It also stood first as to the number of Patriarchs Militant Jewels, having purchased 1,123, and also first as to Rebekah Veteran Jewels, having purchased 1006.

During the past year, the Order in all its branches has had a wonderful gain. The net gain of membership in the Subordinate Lodges was 104,948. In the Encampment Branch, 25,618. In the Rebekah Branch, 57,716.

For the confidence reposed in us, we are thoroughly appreciative of the recognition conferred upon us as your Grand Representatives.

Sincerely and fraternally,

CHARLES S. HARRIS,

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

November 11, 1920.

Whereas, The entry age for men into the Independent Order of Odd Fellows is fixed by law of the Order at twenty-one years or more, and,

Whereas, Most men at a younger age are more susceptible to the teachings of the Order as exemplified in the Degrees, are affected more and it has a greater influence upon them, when their character is in the formative stage, making them better citizens, and,

Whereas, Our Government has recognized the maturity of men at the age of eighteen years by accepting them into the military or naval service or in other governmental positions, and,

Whereas, Other fraternal organizations have recognized the age of eighteen years as maturity of men by accepting them into their organization at this age, therefore be it

Resolved, That Althea Lodge No. 619, I. O. O. F., instruct its representative to the Grand Lodge of Illinois to work for an amendment looking to the fixing of the entry age of men into this Order at the age of eighteen years, and that this resolution be delivered to the Grand Lodge of Illinois of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in session November 16th, 1920.

DOCUMENT NO. 6.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Whereas, It has been brought to our attention that the initiation fees into lodges of the I. O. O. F. are considered among the lowest of fraternal orders, and in our drive for new members we have met and are meeting men who, not understanding Odd Fellowship, are not attracted by our offer of low fees with all the benefits connected with our Order, and who believe that a cheap organization has but little value, but who willingly and gladly pay $100.00 or more to join other orders, who have less to offer than the I. O. O. F., and,

Whereas, A Committee on Revision of By-Laws of Nonpareil Lodge No. 331 of Chicago, after careful study of the question recommended to Nonpareil lodge that the following scale of admission fee be adopted: For initiation $20.00, and for each of the three degrees $10.00, which was adopted by our lodge. We recognize the fact that in raising our fees it will be the means of bringing more appreciative and younger members into our Order. It is not a question of fees and benefits that alone determine the growth of a lodge, but the fraternity and hustling spirit of the members, and it is easier to get a good member to pay $50.00 admission than a poor one to pay $5.00; and in order to bring about a higher and uniform initiation fee throughout the Jurisdiction of Illinois, therefore be it

Resolved, That Article X, Section 2, of the Constitution be amended to read as follows:

"No person shall be admitted to membership into this Lodge for a less sum than is herein provided, viz.: By initiation $20.00 instead of $5.00, as at present, the balance of Section 2 to stay as it is."

Resolved, That Article X, Section 3, be amended to read as follows:

"The fee for each degree shall not be less than Five Dollars, provided that in cities where there are twenty-five or more lodges the fee for each degree shall not be less than $10.00.

Whereas, Our great Order is composed of men who profess faithfulness to our country, which means faithfulness to the laws and institutions under which we live, a government of the people and by the people, and,

Whereas, Each member has been made to understand that no man may be an Odd Fellow in spirit and in truth unless he is faithful to his country, and,

Whereas, Because of the world crisis, we in common with civilization everywhere, must take a decided stand on the side of law and order and uphold constituted authority, and,

Whereas, The Independent Order of Odd Fellows in Illinois has a membership of approximately One Hundred and Twenty Thousand; therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Grand Lodge in annual session in the Capitol of our State, that it give special emphasis to the profession of faithfulness so frequently heard by Odd Fellows, and that our Grand officers in their addresses, either public or in "closed meetings" be requested to devote as much of their addresses as possible to the spreading of the Gospel of Loyalty to our system of government, and to no other; that the lodges as such, and the membership as individuals, may be properly guided and encouraged to demonstrate their faithfulness in these disturbed times in which we are living, and should because of our great numbers, play an important part, lest by our silence or ill advised expressions, contribute to the purposes of the enemies of society.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Believing that it is now time that the Grand Lodge should spend some money to prevent "Dropped for Non-payment of Dues," and keep what members we have in addition to our effort to get new members, and believing that the most effectual way to accomplish this is a regular publication sent to every member in the state keeping them informed as to our aims, objects and accomplishments;

Believing it to be a fact that not over 50 per cent of the men initiated into our Order ever attend their lodge enough to know anything of the value of the Order in Illinois, forming their opinion only from the work of their own local lodge.

Every other Order that is making great progress has an official organ to keep their members informed.

The W. O. W., with almost a million members, sends every member a monthly magazine and even receives a profit financially from it.

Practically all labor organizations see that the members receive a regular publication to keep up the interest of their members.

Even successful industrial plants find it a profitable investment to keep their employes informed of their aims, objects and accomplishments through house organs.

While it is true that we have publications privately published that are doing a valuable work for the Order, they are only read by the enthusiastic workers and the members that should be reached will not subscribe for them even if they know of their existence.

This is a reading age and Illinois Odd Fellows are doing too many good things to depend upon "word of mouth" publicity, and need a publication to bring it into the homes in a proper light; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Grand Master be instructed to appoint a committee to devise ways and means to issue an Official Organ to be sent to every member of the Order in Illinois.

Liberty Bonds, on which the market at the present time is considerably below par. We would suggest that $10,000 Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds and $5,000 Third Liberty Loan Bonds in this fund be disposed of for the purpose of squaring the account, the discount on same to be charged to the account, as the interest on these bonds, as same was collected and was credited to this account. We further suggest so that the Order may not be at a loss in this matter, that the bonds as above stated be sold to the Endowment Funds whenever funds are available in those accounts for investment, at the then market price.

Thereupon the Grand Master introduced the Grand Sire, Brother Joseph Oliver, who addressed the Grand Lodge at length, dwelling upon the very flourishing condition of the Order throughout the world, and particularly the great increase made by the Order in Illinois. The Grand Sire expressed a wish that some provision be made, probably by means by life membership, so that the great decreases that yearly occur by droppings, might be avoided, and our Order have three million or more Subordinate lodge members. The Grand Sire congratulated the Order in Illinois on their Homes.

Brother James Ewing Davis, G.R., responded to the address of the Grand Sire.

A recess was declared and Sister Donovan was introduced by the Grand Master. Sister Donovan explained, and called attention to a cupid doll made by Miss Lucille White of the Orphans' Home, now in the Open Air Colony, and asked the tender solicitude of the members for Miss White.

The Grand Lodge resumed its session and Rev. Henry D. Dick was introduced, and spoke at length regarding his efforts and those of Representative Ransom Walker and others in behalf of the wounded soldiers at Ft. Sheridan, Ill.

On motion of Brother James Ewing Davis, G.R., a warrant for fifty dollars was ordered drawn on the Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Fund to carry on the work of Brother Dick, the invalid soldiers desiring to purchase cloth for articles made by them.

Brother J. A. Lucas, P.G.M., presented to the Grand Master a gavel made of wood grown at the Orphans' Home, the gavel being made by Laundryman John Cote, which was accepted with thanks.

Thereupon the Grand Lodge adjourned until 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Report by Bro. J. W. Yantis, of No. 117.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Trustees of the Old Folks' Home would respectfully report as follows on Document No. 17 of the 1919 Journal: We conferred with different architects relative to enlarging the present hospital building, also the erection of a new building for the reception and care of hospital patients, and were advised that owing to the unsettled conditions, it was impossible for them to give even an approximate estimate of the cost of such improvement; neither would supply houses undertake to give us any definite assurance of being able to furnish material.

In view of these conditions, we deemed it for the best interest of the Order to let the matter rest until a more favorable adjustment of building conditions were established, and are pleased to report that an improvement in these conditions appears to be close at hand.

Your Committee on State of the Order would respectfully report as follows on Document No. 8:

This subject has been before the Grand Lodge for years and our Committee is in entire sympathy with this resolution, which has to do with so-called "Hospital Patients" being allowed to enter the Old Folks' Home, but inasmuch as this is a matter of finance entirely, it is impossible for this Committee to recommend any action.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

in honor of

BRO. FRED B. MERRILLS,

Past Grand Master, who died in Chicago, May 29, 1920.

Bro. John W. Yantis, P.G.M., presiding. Brother Yantis asked every one in the lodge room to pause a moment in our deliberations and to rise and face to the East in memory of those Odd Fellows who lie in Flanders field, and all those brothers and sisters who have gone before, which was done.

The Consistory Quartette, of Bloomington, sang "One Sweetly Solemn Thought."

Whereupon Bro. M. P. Berry, P.G.M., on behalf of the Committee on Necrology, read the following report:

"Leaves have their time to fall
And flowers to wither at the North winds' breath
And stars to set but all
Thou hast all seasons for thine own, O death."

Frederick B. Merrills was born in Shiloh Valley Township, four miles east of Belleville, Illinois, on August 20, 1864. He died suddenly in Chicago, May 29, 1920. He was educated in the rural schools of St. Clair County, in the public schools at Belleville, Illinois, and in the Carbondale Normal. For a number of years after leaving school he became a teacher and taught for several years in the rural schools of his county and in the public schools of Belleville.

He soon found himself possessed of a desire to read law and become a lawyer, and at once he began reading law in Belleville and was admitted to the bar of this State in 1889. He began the practice of his profession in his home city, continuing therein a little over thirty years.

In 1902 he was appointed Master of Chancery of his county, which office he ably and faithfully filled. Brother Merrills had a legal mind; he was a natural lawyer, and soon secured a large and successful practice. In 1916 he was nominated for the office of Judge of the Supreme Court, but withdrew from the race before the election day.

On December 28, 1887, he was married to Virginia M. Badgley, who survives him. He had four children, three sons and one daughter, all of whom are living.

It has been my privilege to know Brother Merrills in his home, having visited him on two or three different occasions. Some one has said, "We never know a man until we know him in his home." Brother Merrills had an ideal home, and surrounded it and his loved ones with all of the comforts and many of the luxuries of life. He never grew tired of talking to his friends about his family and especially the education of his children. His oldest son became a lawyer and was taken into partnership with his father. He was kind in his home and enjoyed the company of his friends and always said that there was nothing too good for them.

Brother Merrills was in many respects a strong man. He had a bright mind; a generous heart and liberal nature. He was optimistic by nature and loved his fellow men. He always saw a silver lining to every cloud.

He was, by nature, altruistic. This led him early in life to become an ardent fraternalist. He became prominent in the Masonic orders, having filled all the chairs in his home lodges.

While still a young man he became an Odd Fellow; passed through the chairs of his home lodge and became a member of this Grand Lodge in 1889; dropped out in 1890 and was here again in 1891. He has been a member of this Grand Lodge from that day until his death, twenty-nine years. Perhaps few names or faces in this Grand Lodge were so familiar to the Order in this State as Brother Merrills. He was by nature and qualifications an outstanding Odd Fellow and soon became recognized as such by the Grand Lodge. He served for a time on the Finance Committee; on the Orphans' Home Board, and was Chairman of the Legislative Committee. In 1906 he was elected Grand Master of this Jurisdiction, being elevated to the highest position within the gift of this Grand Lodge. He later represented this Grand Lodge in the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Brother Merrills was a good lawyer and soon became recognized as the leading member of our Grand Lodge in the laws of Odd Fellowship. In 1904 the Order in this State decided to revise the laws of Odd Fellowship. The committee appointed for that purpose by the then Grand Master, J. A. Lucas, consisted of P.G.M. Henry A. Stone, P.G.M. J. R. Kewley, P.G.M. Charles S. Harris and Deputy Grand Master William R. Humphrey and Duncan McDougal. This committee, recognizing Brother Merrills' ability as a lawyer and his knowledge of the laws of Odd Fellowship, employed Brother Merrills to prepare this code, the result of which is known to all the members of this Grand Lodge. He was the author of what is now known as "Merrills' Code," having completed it in 1906. Had he accomplished nothing more for our Order than this code it would be sufficient to embalm his memory in the lives of all Illinois Odd Fellows.

While Brother Merrills was a lawyer, he was also a fraternalist, and one statement in the opening of his Code throws much light upon the drift of his character. He says, "Odd Fellowship does not need more laws, but it does need more fraternity."

Brother Merrills was large enough to rise above the technical rules of law and live in the warmer principles of fraternity. For several years prior to his death Brother Merrills was afflicted with heart trouble, which often caused him great distress. On several occasions he had severe attacks while attending Grand Lodge, but he was courageous and after recovery proceeded to his work.

He was a forcible speaker and heartily entered into the discussion of many important problems of the Order. Very few matters of importance passed the Grand Lodge without his notice. He was deliberate in his manner, and forcible in argument. He enjoyed victory, but was always a good loser and always took defeat gracefully, seldom losing his patience or temper. In the month of May, 1920, while in apparently good health, he went to Chicago to attend the annual convention of the Illinois State Bar Association. While there in his room at the Morrison Hotel he was stricken ill with heart trouble and before medical attendance could reach his bedside, and in the absence of all his loved ones, his heart ceased to throb and he slept the sleep that knows no waking. His body was taken to Belleville, where his burial took place, and where his remains were laid to rest.

Brother Merrills was a public spirited citizen, and had always taken active parts in the upbuilding and improvement of his home city.

In politics he was a Democrat and was always loyal to his party. In religion he was a Baptist. Brother Merrills will be missed in this Grand Lodge and in his home city, but the greatest loss will come to his family—his widow and his four orphan children.

It is what a man was that lives after him; what he says sounds along the years like voices in a mountain gorge; but what he does repeats itself down through the centuries for all time to come; it is what he does that lives forever. A man dies and disappears, but his thoughts, acts, and deeds survive and leave their impress on the human race. It is the spirit of man that is immortal. So it will be with you and me. Brother Merrills is dead. We shall see him no more, but the influence of his life will live on forever.

Death removes us from this to an eternal world. But it is not the end of human actions; their influence never dies; they leave a breathless impress on eternity. "We touch not a wire but that it vibrates to God."

In the death of Brother Merrills this Grand Lodge has met a severe loss and our Order at large loses a true friend and able advocate of its principles, but the greatest loss falls on his widow and four children, who lost the nearest and dearest friend they ever had. To them let us extend our warmest sympathy.

M. P. BERRY,
J. W. YANTIS,
CHAS. S. HARRIS,
Committee.

Bro. Berry moved that the resolution be adopted, spread upon the records in full, and a copy sent to the widow and children of the deceased brother at Belleville, Ill., which was carried unanimously.

Bro. Blood introduced Sister Frances A. Kuchera, who presented to the endowment funds seven fifty dollar bills, a result of her efforts in behalf of those funds, which were received with thanks.

Bro. Blood stated that Sister Kuchera was also instrumental in organizing Truth Lodge. Sister Kuchera addressed the Grand Lodge and explained her efforts in behalf of the organization.

The Grand Master presented to Sister Kuchera a bouquet of flowers.

Sister Lucas, matron of the Orphans' Home, was introduced and addressed the Grand Lodge.

The Grand Master also presented to the ladies of the Consistory Quartette a bouquet of flowers.

Bro. Robt. Silverman, of Golden Star Lodge, No. 903, presented to the Orphans' Home the sum of ten dollars for a Christmas fund, which was suitably acknowledged by Supt. Lucas.

Closing exercises by the Consistory Quartette and Orphans' Home band.

Thereupon the Grand Master declared a recess until 2:00 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, NOV. 17, 1920, 2 P. M.

The Grand Lodge met pursuant to noon recess, Grand Master John W. Birney, in the chair.

Present: All Grand Officers and a quorum of Representatives.

The Grand Marshal, with his assistants, having examined all members present, reported all correct.

Thereupon, on motion, the amendment to Grand Lodge By-Laws, presented by Bros. A. Otis Arnold and H. M. Blood, at the morning session for first reading, was again read for a second time, relative to appointment of lodge deputies (Document No. 33, Wednesday a. m. session), being Sec. 15, Art. 2.

It was moved to adopt the amendment to the By-Laws of the Grand Lodge, Doc. 33, as read at the morning's session. The motion was carried by a two-thirds vote by division and count.

The Grand Lodge proceeded to the consideration of proposed amendments to the Grand Lodge Constitution.

Bro. James Ewing Davis, G.R., moved that the proposed amendment to the Constitution respecting mileage and per diem to be paid to District Deputy Grand Masters found in the Grand Officers' Reports (Journal 1919, Document No. 50, Art. VI, Section 10) be indefinitely postponed, which motion was unanimously agreed to.

The Grand Lodge proceeded to the consideration of the following proposed amendment to the Grand Lodge Constitution:

Section 2. One District Deputy Grand Master shall be appointed and commissioned by the Grand Master in each district, the term of his service to be one year from the December 1st succeeding his appointment. He shall be a resident of his district, a member of a lodge therein, a Past Grand in good standing and lawfully in possession of a certificate from the Grand Instructor showing that he is proficient in the unwritten work. He shall be responsible alone to the Grand Master, obey his instructions and perform such duties as are required by the Grand Master or the laws of the Grand Lodge. The Grand Master, in his discretion, shall have the power at any time to remove any District Deputy. The District Deputy shall be subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of his lodge as any other member.

Which, on motion, was adopted by a two-thirds vote by division and count.

Bro. James Ewing Davis, G.R., in the chair.

It was moved and seconded that the following amendment to the Grand Lodge Constitution be adopted:

Annual Sessions in October.

Section 1. "The Grand Lodge shall meet annually on the first Tuesday in October. This meeting shall be styled the annual session. Special meetings shall be held on the call of the Grand Master. When in annual or special session fifty representative members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the Grand Lodge may adjourn from time to time until the business of the session shall have been disposed of. The annual session shall be held in the city of Springfield, except when otherwise ordered by a two-thirds vote of the Grand Lodge convened in annual session. A special session shall be held at the time and place designated by the Grand Master in the call."

It was moved to lay on the table, which motion was lost.

The question being on the adoption of the amendment, the amendment was carried by a two-thirds vote by division and count.

Consolidation of Lodges.

(Journal 1919, Document No. 15, Article 11, Section 5.)

Section No. 5. The Grand Master, at his discretion, or the Grand Lodge, at its discretion, shall grant and issue the necessary dispensation, provided that no lodge has reported more than one-third (and in no case less than five) of the members voting against the written provision providing for the consolidation.

On motion of Bro. J. Henry Debus, of No. 540, the foregoing amendment to the Grand Lodge Constitution was adopted by a two-thirds vote by division and count.

On motion of Bro. Willis Melville, of No. 693, the rules were suspended by a two-thirds vote and all reports and resolutions were acted upon at first reading.

Berry, has been so thoughtful and generous as to give to each Home Library Fund the sum of $400.00, we feel that a good foundation for a permanent library fund has been started, and a chance should be given each lodge or individual to add to same from time to time.

DOCUMENT NO. 50.

Report of Committee on Dropping for Non-payment of Dues.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee having given this subject matter due attention, would respectfully report and recommend as follows:

First—We are of the opinion and belief that large classes at an initiation do not produce the best and most lasting results, for the reason that in a large class candidates in close proximity to each other are frequently diverted from a proper observance of the work, and thereby fail to gain that strong and lasting impression that is so essential and valuable in their future life as Odd Fellows. The candidate who goes it alone at once realizes that the entire proceeding is for him alone, and he gathers into mind and heart more of the lesson before him than he would receive were he one of a large class, and the lasting impression that we desire to make will be more likely to remain with him. This is especially true of the Initiatory Degree, where the first and most lasting impression is made.

The more frequently a degree staff renders a degree the more proficient it would become, hence, we believe it is bad practice on the part of a lodge to let work accumulate, thereby causing candidates in many instances to lose interest and the degree staff to accumulate rust from want of use. We would therefore strongly recommend to lodges to do the work promptly when it appears, and the more frequently it is done the better it should be done for practice makes perfect.

Second—Give a new member something to do and the lodge will gain his attention and have a fair chance of holding it. A place on Committees of Investigation will at once interest a new member. Or if a young man has a place on the drill team of the Degree Staff it will keep him occupied and make him feel that he is in truth a part of the lodge. Neglect of a new member on the part of the officers of the lodge will lead to inaction and loss of interest on the part of the member, consequently he is likely to “freeze up,” in his enthusiasm before he is well established, and he will “only belong” instead of becoming an energetic and helpful brother.

Third—Have for a financial secretary a devoted brother who is continuously “on the job,” one who does not depend on lodge nights alone for the collection of dues, but one who puts himself in the way, unobtrusively, of delinquent brothers and who shows by his presence at least that he is ready to receive money for the lodge at any and all times. He should always send notices for dues a meeting night or two before a brother is out of benefits, so that the brother may not lose his rights through lack of attention by the lodge or its officers. “Dues, for convenience, are payable quarterly” and they should be paid in full each time in order that the brother’s receipt may run to the end of the quarter. Much confusion is caused on the lodge ledger as well as in the mind of the brother by the evil practice of paying lodge dues in haphazard amounts; the brother thereby losing track of the time he is paid to, and the financial secretary likely to fail in sending him notice of the approaching delinquency before the end of the quarter.

Your Committee would thereby summarize this report and emphasize their recommendations under three headings:

First—Smaller and more frequent classes in the initiatory degree especially, for the good of both the degree staff and the candidate.

Second—Recognize a new member by giving him something to do, and Third—Give a helping hand to your financial secretary in collecting dues by at least paying your own promptly and in the full amount each quarter.

And we believe that a reasonable step will have been taken toward “Keeping the back door shut,” and no harm will result from reading this report to the lodge for the “Good of the Order.”

All of which is fraternally submitted.

In the exemplification of the work, the Lodge and the Staff are both to be commended most heartily. While it was ordinarily difficult to hear the speaking in the Armory, there was no trouble whatsoever hearing quite plainly everything that was said by each member of the Degree Staff. Special commendation should be given each and every member of the Staff for the excellent manner in which the work was done. The drill work of the Guards is always spectacular in this Degree and their performance in the Armory was no exception to the rule.

The Noble Grand, as exemplified by H. C. McReynolds, was well done in the first section and the candidates gave evidence of having been well drilled in all the secret work. As we have said, it is hard to pick out any one particular person who is more entitled to commendation than the others, as the work of the Noble Grand, the Vice Grand, the King, David and Jonathan were excellently performed in good voice, with precision and with excellent interpretation. Everyone who witnessed the work will go home feeling that the degree of Friendship, as exemplified by this combination staff, was beautifully done and well worth anyone's time coming to Springfield to see, and anyone especially interested in the formation of a Degree Staff will carry home with him enough ideas to help out for the entire year.

The visiting brothers were most highly entertained by the vaudeville entertainment given by the Lodge and the Lodge is to be specially thanked for so providing such an excellent program.

RANSOM WALKER,
L. L. MCKINLEY.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Fraternally submitted,

SIGNED BY THE COMMITTEE.

Which was adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 75a.

Springfield, Ill., November 17, 1920.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

The following communication has been received by the Rebekah State Assembly from the Association of Rebekah Assemblies and the Assembly of Illinois has unanimously adopted the resolution as requested and respectfully ask that the Grand Lodge concur in the request for action on the part of its representatives to the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT.

St. Petersburg, Fla.

The President of the Association of Rebekah Assemblies, I. O. O. F., send greetings to the President, Officers, and Representatives of the Rebekah Assembly of the State of Illinois, and wish for you a most harmonious and successful session.

We are pleased to advise you that the officers of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies are a unit in thinking that the time has arrived when the International Association of Assemblies shall be chartered by the Sovereign Grand Lodge at its next session in September, 1921. When this charter is granted the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies will be to the various State and District Assemblies what the Sovereign Grand Lodge is to the Grand Lodges of the world.

Illinois being the largest Rebekah Jurisdiction in the world, we ask that you join with the other Jurisdictions in passing a resolution asking the Sovereign Grand Lodge to grant said charter and that you also ask your Grand Lodge to request their representatives to the Sovereign Grand Lodge to work and vote for such charter.

Let me urge upon you the importance of your attention to this matter at your Assembly session.

Please advise me of the action of your Assembly in this matter.

Yours fraternally,

HATTIE REED WHITTAKER,

Attest:

President.

MYRTLE W. TANDY,

Secretary.

Respectfully submitted to the attention of the Grand Lodge.

MAE E. CROWELL,

Assembly Secretary.

DOCUMENT NO. 76.

Second report by the Committee on Rebekah Degree.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee to whom was referred the communication from the Rebekah Assembly of Illinois, stating that a communication had been received by it from the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies stating that the assembly of Illinois had unanimously adopted the resolution as requested and respectfully ask that the Grand Lodge of Illinois concur in the request for action on the part of its representatives to the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Your Committee have considered the resolution transmitted from the office of the President at St. Petersburg, Fla., of the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies set forth the plan which your Committee understands to be that the International Association of Assemblies (of Grand Jurisdictions) shall be chartered by the Sovereign Grand Lodge and that when so chartered, the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies will stand in relation to the various State and District Assemblies as the Sovereign Grand Lodge stands to the Grand Lodges of the world.

Your Committee deems it inadvisable that this Grand Lodge should recommend to the Sovereign Grand Lodge the chartering of a International Association of Rebekah Assembly that would in any wise divorce Rebekah Odd Fellowship from the Sovereign Grand Lodge and that would divorce the Rebekah Assemblies of the Grand Jurisdictions from the several Grand Lodges.

Therefore your Committee would recommend that the request be not concurred in.

SIGNED BY THE COMMITTEE.
E. D. HARRIS, Chairman.

Which was adopted.

Document No. 34 was referred to Committee on State of the Order, with instructions to report at the next session.

DOCUMENT NO. 78.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 18, 1920.

The following changes in the Constitution for the Rebekah lodges of Illinois, to conform to the Sovereign Grand Lodge law, have been adopted by the Rebekah Assembly of Illinois, and are referred to the Grand Lodge for approval.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

In that some parts of our constitution for Rebekah lodges have some conflictions with our Sovereign Grand Lodge laws, I would make the following recommendations to make the constitution conform to these laws:

Article IX.

Section 1. A member dropped for non-payment of dues from membership in this lodge may, upon the payment of the fee of one year's dues, be reinstated upon application made in writing in the regular form, and shall be treated in all respects like a proposition for membership, as hereinbefore provided, except that a majority vote shall be necessary to elect. Such dropped member, if free from charges, may, upon payment of fee, take a dismissal certificate in the first instance or after being denied reinstatement.

I recommend that it be revised to read as follows:

Article IX.

Section 1. A member droppeed for non-payment of dues from membership in this lodge may, upon the payment of the fee of one year's dues, be reinstated upon application made in writing in the regular form, and shall be treated in all respects like a proposition for membership, as hereinbefore provided. Such dropped member, if free from charges, may, upon payment of fee, take a dismissal certificate in the first instance or after being denied reinstatement.

Article III.*Balloting.

Section 7. When the report of the investigating committee has been received by the lodge, the candidate shall be balloted for as required by law, after which the ballot box shall be passed by the Warden to the Vice-Grand, who shall examine the ballot and inform the Noble Grand whether the same is favorable or unfavorable; the Warden shall then pass the box to the Noble Grand, who shall inspect the ballot and announce the result, merely stating that the candidate was elected or rejected.

If not more than two black balls appear, the candidate shall be declared elected; but if three or more appear, the candidate shall be declared rejected, unless it be a candidate applying for reinstatement.

I recommend it be revised to read as follows:

Article III.*Balloting.

Section 7. When the report of the investigating committee has been received by the lodge, the candidate shall be balloted for as required by law, after which the ballot box shall be passed by the Warden to the Vice-Grand, who shall examine the ballot and inform the Noble Grand whether the same is favorable or unfavorable; the Warden shall then pass the box to the Noble Grand, who shall inspect the ballot and announce the result, merely stating that the candidate is elected or rejected. If not more than two black balls appear, the candidate shall be declared elected; but if three or more appear, the candidate shall be declared rejected.

Article III.*Membership.

Section 1. Clause 2. All Odd Fellows in good standing, their wives, daughters, sisters and mothers; also the daughters, sisters, and mothers of deceased Odd Fellows who at the time of their death were members of our Order.

Shall be revised to read:

Article III.*Membership.

Section 1. Clause 2. All Odd Fellows in good standing, their wives, daughters, sisters and mothers; also the daughters, sisters, and mothers of deceased Odd Fellows who at the time of their death were members of our Order in good standing.

Fraternally submitted,

MAE E. CROWELL,
 Assembly Secretary.

JUDICIARY AND APPEALS COMMITTEE

Proceedings of the November Session, 1920

CASE NO. 490.

Dewey Lodge No. 794, I. O. O. F.	}	Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, November Ses- sion, 1920.
vs.
John Jessie.

Opinion by Bro. W. E. P. Anderson, of No. 107.

The record in this case shows that on July 9th, 1920, complaint was made to the officers and members of Dewey Lodge by one of its members, charging that John Jessie, a member of said Lodge had been guilty of conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow by stealing hogs.

The report of the committee appointed to investigate the charge shows from their recital of the records of the circuit court of Ford county, Illinois, together with the testimony of a couple of witnesses that defendant had stolen nine head of hogs and some hides; also, that he was arrested on April 20th, 1920, on a charge of larceny; that he plead guilty of stealing nine hogs, whereupon he was ordered by the court to pay all costs, and that he be discharged on probation on giving a $100.00 bond, and the case was continued to the spring term, 1921, of said court. The record also shows defendant's age to be twenty-eight years.

On July 30th, 1920, at a meeting of the Lodge, the charge was read to defendant, to which he plead guilty. The Lodge then proceeded to fix the penalty. A motion to expel him was lost. A motion was then made and carried that he be suspended for one year, whereupon the Noble Grand declared him suspended for one year.

An appeal from the action of the Lodge was taken by certain members thereof, inadvertently to Grand Master John W. Birney, who referred the case to this committee for action.

In view of the fact that the judge before whom defendant entered his plea of guilty manifested a spirit of leniency, by not inflicting upon the defendant a penalty, by way of a fine, or imprisonment, we are not disposed to hold that the Lodge erred in fixing his penalty at suspension for one year.

Section 1723 Merrill's Code states the law of the Order to be that "When the accused pleads guilty, the Lodge may proceed to vote upon his punishment without the formality of a trial." The charge being limited to conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow, we are of the opinion that the penalty fixed by Dewey Lodge should stand.

It is therefore ordered that the action of the Lodge be sustained and that the appeal be dismissed.

CASE NO. 491.

Capital City Lodge No. 166,	} Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, November Ses- sion, 1920.
I. O. O. F.
vs.
Bro. W. S. Crowder.

Opinion by Bro. John W. Fling, Jr., of No. 244.

STATEMENT.

In this case it appears from the record filed herein that on July 14th, 1920, charges were preferred against Bro. W. S. Crowder, Past Grand of said Lodge charging him in a general charge with "conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow" and with "breaking up another Odd Fellow's home."

The charge was read in open Lodge at said meeting and a committee of three members was duly appointed to investigate the charge. The committee on July 21st, 1920, at a regular meeting submitted a report merely stating they found evidence to support the charge, but did not file any specifications with their report, which by the law of our Order, it was the duty of the committee to do.

Under Section 475 of the Code of 1920, a form for charges and specifications will be found. The committee should have followed up the general charge of "conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow" with specifications of time, places and circumstances surrounding said charge. It is contemplated that the accused shall be given specific information as to the offense charged so that he may prepare to answer the same.

On motion the secretary was ordered to notify the brother of the charges having been preferred, a copy of the general charge was furnished the accused and he was directed to appear on August 4th, 1920, to "plead guilty or not guilty."

At the meeting of August 4th, 1920, Brother M. U. Woodruff, an Odd Fellow and a lawyer, appeared before the Lodge for Brother Crowder, and made a motion in writing to dismiss the charges on the following grounds:

1st. Said alleged charges are too vague, uncertain and insufficient to be answered thereunto.

2nd. There is no offense alleged in said charge cognizable under the laws of the Order.

3rd. There are no specifications to said alleged charge setting forth the fact when, how, where or in what manner any offense was committed by the defendant, as required by law.

The Lodge, upon motion, refused to dismiss and the Noble Grand appointed Bro. James H. Ashby, commissioner. The commissioner, on August 16th, 1920, took the evidence of Bro. A. C. Cochran, the prosecuting witness, and on August 18th, 1920, another witness was examined.

Neither the defendant nor his attorney appeared at the taking of the testimony, but at the session of the Lodge on August 18th, at the conclusion of the reading of the testimony as taken by the commissioner, the attorney, Bro. Woodruff, informed the Noble Grand "that they (meaning Bro. Crowder and himself, as counsel,) didn't care to have anything to do with the case." The Noble Grand then declared "Bro. W. S. Crowder, P.G., expelled from membership, for 'contempt.'" Bro. Woodruff, after the action of the Noble Grand and at the same meeting, gave notice of an appeal and filed the same in writing with the secretary of the Lodge, which appeal was in the same language as the motion to dismiss as heretofore set out in this opinion and was therefore a renewal of the motion to dismiss.

The jurisdiction of the Lodge was challenged by Bro. W. S. Crowder to try him on the general charge of "conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow" because no specifications had been filed to inform him of the particular acts complained of, which would, if proven, constitute "conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow."

In this case there were no specifications of any acts by the committee charging Bro. Crowder with specific acts constituting the charge of "conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow" that in any manner complied with the law and the decisions of the Order. The manner of procedure in such cases is very clearly set out in the Code of 1920.

Waiving the many errors in this record the Noble Grand was in error in expelling Bro. W. S. Crowder for failure to be present in Lodge and such order of expulsion is hereby reversed and this case is hereby remanded with leave to prefer proper charges and proceed with trial thereof, in case the Lodge shall see fit so to do.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN W. FLING, JR.,

‡Until 1845 inclusive, proxy representation in the Grand Lodge of the United States was permitted. In 1839 Past Grand Master Samuel Pryor, of Pennsylvania, was elected proxy Representative by the Grand Lodge of Illinois, but did not serve. At the adjourned session in April, 1840, Past Grand Master Augustus Mathiot, of Maryland, presented credentials as proxy Representative of Illinois, which were accepted, and he was also recognized in that capacity at the annual session in October following; but there is no record of his election or appointment. In 1842 and 1843, James Earnest, of New York, was elected and served as proxy Representative of Illinois. In 1844 Past Grand Master William S. Stewart, of Missouri, D.D.G.S., was requested to appoint a proxy Representative for the Grand Lodge of Illinois; but no such proxy was present at the session of that year, unless Stewart himself acted in that capacity. In 1845 no election for Representative was held.

NOTICES.

The next Annual Session of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F., will be held in the City of Springfield, on the third Tuesday of October, 1921, viz, the 18th day of the month, at 3 o'clock.

The special attention of Secretaries and others is directed to the following law of the Sovereign Grand Lodge:

Resolved, That Grand Scribes and Grand Secretaries are hereby prohibited from delivering or transmitting visiting or withdrawal cards to any person whatever, or to any Encampment or Lodge, excepting upon the order in writing of an Encampment or Lodge, signed by its Scribe (in the case of an Encampment) or by its Secretary (in the case of a Lodge), and authenticated by the official seal of the Encampment or the Lodge.

Also to this law of the Grand Lodge of Illinois:

Resolved, That the Grand Secretary be directed not to fill any orders for supplies, for Lodges or individuals, unless the cash accompany such order.

In ordering such supplies as are sent by express, give full instructions; state to what office or station, and in whose care they may be forwarded.

All communications intended for the Grand Lodge, or the Grand Secretary, must be addressed to the undersigned at Springfield. The Grand Secretary's office is in the Grand Lodge Building, 115 W. Monroe street.

Springfield, Ill., 1921.

JOHN H. SIKES,
Grand Secretary.

THE FLAG CEREMONY.

The following has been adopted by the Grand Lodge and should be used by every Lodge prior to opening:

In order that there may be uniformity in the various lodges of the State a Flag Ceremony has been provided.

The Noble Grand calls the lodge to order and satisfies himself that all present are qualified to remain. Immediately following and before the lodge is opened he says:

"The Warden and the committee (previously designated by the Noble Grand, the Conductor may be one of the committee) will retire and present the Flag of our country."

They retire, without ceremony, in single file, the Warden in the center. On reaching the ante-room the Warden takes the Flag, which should be mounted on a staff, and with committee returns to the inner door. He gives an alarm to attract the attention of the inside guardian. The inside guardian says:

"Noble Grand, the Warden and committee bearing the Flag are ready to enter."

N. G.: "You will admit them."

As they enter, without signal, the lodge rises and sings the first verse of "My Country, 'Tis of Thee."

They enter single file, the Warden, bearing the Flag, in the center. They proceed to the center of the room, facing the Noble Grand. As soon as they have reached the center and the singing is completed, the one on the right opens the Bible on the altar before them.

(The Bible should be kept on the altar in the center of the room at all times, except when degrees are being conferred.)

The Noble Grand says:

"Brothers, salute the Flag."

This is the regular military salute, bringing the open right hand to the right side of the forehead, then dropping it to the side.

The Warden and committee proceed in single file to the station of the Noble Grand and the Flag is presented to the Noble Grand, who places it in a socket at his right hand.

The Warden and committee then proceed to their places and the lodge is seated.

(The above is the law of the Grand Lodge and will be continued in Lodges indefinitely.)

Springfield, Ill., 1921.
